Translation Studies in Africa Judith Inggs, Libby Meintjes, 2009-05-04 A fascinating volume bringing together research articles on translation and interpreting studies in Africa written mainly but not exclusively by researchers living and working in the region The British Journal of Photography, 1882 Ingmar Bergman's The Silence Maaret Koskinen, 2011-07-01 Ingmar Bergman's 1963 film The Silence was made at a point in his career when his stature as one of the great art film directors allowed him to push beyond the boundaries of what was acceptable to censorship boards in Sweden and the United States The film's depiction of sexuality was as Judith Crist wrote at the time in the New York Herald Tribune not for the prudish Yet Bergman's notebooks and screenplays reveal his tendency for self-censorship both to dampen the literary quality of his screenwriting and to alter portions of the script that Bergman ultimately deemed too provocative Maaret Koskinen a professor of cinema studies and film critic for Sweden's largest national daily newspaper was the first scholar given access to Bergman's private papers during the last years of his life Bergman's notebooks reveal the difficulties he experienced in writing for the medium of moving images and his meditations on the relationship or its lack between moving images and the spoken or written word Koskinen's attention to this intermedial framework is anchored in a close reading of the film focusing on the many faceted relationships between images and dialogue music sound and silence The Silence offers filmgoers an entryway into the cinematic cultural and sociopolitical issues of its time but remains a classic rich enough for scrutiny from a variety of perspectives and methodologies Koskinen draws a picture of Bergman that challenges the traditional view of him as an auteur revealing his attempts to overcome his own image as a creator of serious art films by making his work relevant to a new generation of filmgoers Her exploration of the film touches on issues of censorship and the cinema of small nations while shedding new light on the shifting views of Bergman and auteurist film high art and popular culture English Mechanic and World of Science, 1897 Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd, 1910 English Mechanics, 1927 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art, 1922 Land and Water, 1917 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, 1917 Journal of the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall Yard, 1917 Process Photogram, 1897 Everybody's Magazine, 1906 Eclectic Magazine, and Monthly Edition of the Living Age John Holmes Agnew, Walter Hilliard Bidwell, 1896 Catalogue Maggs Bros, 1964 The American Architect and the Architectural Review, 1923 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science, 1875 Hollywood Movie Novels, 1922 Irish Builder and Engineer, 1885 The Medical and Surgical Reporter, 1861 THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, 1930
