Theatre Symposium, Vol. 24 Arnab Banerji, 2016-07-19 At a time when so many options exist for access to theatrical entertainments it is no surprise that theatre practitioners and scholars are often preoccupied with the role of the audience While space undoubtedly impacts the rehearsal and production processes its greater significance seems to rest in the impact a specific location has on the audience This volume delves into issues of theatre and space traversing traditional theatre spaces such as the African Grove Theater discussed by Gregory Carr Tony Gunn s examination of Edward Gorey s theatrical designs and George Pate s reflections on Beckett s stage directors Also highlighted are some decidedly innovative spaces like those described by J K Curry in her examination of Theatre for One and modern uses of medieval sacred spaces as detailed by Carla Lahey Whether positive or negative in scope meanings generated within theatre spaces are impacted by the cultural context from which they emerge the ways in which space is conceived scrutinized and experienced As a result the relationship between space theatre and audience is diverse complex and ever changing in practice
