

Case Study: The Central Evaluation Unit

The Central Evaluation Unit (CEU) of the XIII Directorate evaluated applications from academics bidding for research grants available under the 'cooperation and foundations' scheme of the European Union. This scheme distributed relatively small grants (less than A100,000) to fund the early stages of cooperative research between universities in the European Union. Based in Brussels, the CEU's objectives were to make decisions that were consistently in line with directory guide rules, but also to give as speedy a response as possible to applicants. All new applications are sent to the CEU's applications processing unit (CEUPU) by University Liaison Officers (ULOs) who were based at around 150 universities around the EU. Any academic who wanted to apply for a grant needed to submit an application form (downloadable online) and other signed documentation through the local ULO. The CEUPU employs three 'checkers' with three support and secretarial staff, a pool of twelve clerks who are responsible for data entry and filing, ten auditors (staff who prepare and issue the grant approval documents), and a special advisor (who is a senior ex-officer employed part-time to assess nonstandard applications).

Véronique Fontan was the manager in charge of the Central Evaluation Unit's applications processing unit (CEUPU). She had been invited by the Directory chief executive, Leda Grumman, to make a presentation to senior colleagues about the reasons for the success of her unit. The reason for her invitation to the meeting was, first, that the systems used for handling new grant applications were well proven and robust, and, secondly, that her operation was well known for consistently meeting, and in many cases exceeding, its targets. Véronique set a day aside to collect some information about the activities of the CEUPU. She first reviewed her monthly management reports. The information system provided an
