Guided by Meaning in Primary Literacy Joyce Armstrong Carroll, Kelley Barger, Karla James, Kristy Hill, 2016-12-12 Using a research based approach this book examines the critical connections between writing and reading and it explains how to encourage early literacy in the classroom and library How can teachers and librarians support true literacy in young learners Are very young children guided by meaning in constructing their reality and their relationship to the world What is the value of championing writing at the kindergarten level Guided by Meaning in Primary Literacy Libraries Reading Writing and Learning answers these questions and many more providing best practices in early literacy through explicit lessons in writing and reading and demonstrating how the library can extend learning in deep and powerful ways While some books emphasize reading others emphasize writing and still others focus on library instruction this profound resource brings all of the components of literacy together in a meaningful way Throughout the book the authors highlight examples of student writing anecdotes from the real world and connections between theory and what happens in practical application Unique in its thoroughness of content for this age group this text is essential reading for all early childhood teachers and librarians working in schools and in public libraries with young children The book also serves trainers working with teachers and librarians to increase their effectiveness in working with young children to promote early literacy

A New Vision for Early Childhood Noah Hichenberg, 2024-12-23 This innovative and thought provoking book invites you to move away from strategies of control and toward relationships of trust with young children This book presents the conceptual foundation for this re framed relationship as well as pragmatic takeaways for parents and teachers of preschool aged children The book offers a concise critical history of early childhood which is then laid against the author s ethnographic research into the daily life of one 2 year old This unique and refreshing perspective offers intimate insight into the tension between the adult s desire for control and the child s capacity for resistance The author argues that when the adult child relationship is defined by control the child is faced with the same choice on repeat submit or resist Taking action in accordance with personal wants and needs typically requires transgressing adult expectations For the child in today s hyper surveilled childhood to speak up is to resist Moving these ideas from research and theory back into preschools and homes A New Vision for Early Childhood is important reading for any preschool teacher leader or parent who wants to reconsider their relationship with children We can become allies instead of sheriffs working with children instead of against them Creating Readers Pamela Byrne Schiller,2001 Learn the basic building blocks of reading with Creating Readers the comprehensive resource that develops a strong foundation for pre readers Creating Readers gives teachers and parents the tools to teach pre reading skills with over 1000 activities games fingerplays songs tongue twisters poems and stories for the letters of the alphabet This invaluable resource develops the child s desire to read as well as the skills needed to begin reading Creating Readers starts children ages 3 to 8 towards a future of books and reading Dr Pam Schiller shares her extensive knowledge in workshops radio and television interviews and as a popular keynote speaker and author Her best selling titles include The Complete Resource Book The Values Book Count on Math and Start Smart International Perspectives on Educating for Democracy in Early Childhood Stacy Lee DeZutter,2023-05-08 This book brings together established and emerging scholars from around the globe to highlight new directions for research on young children as active engaged citizens of classrooms Divided into three sections the volume draws on innovative methods to explore diverse conceptualizations of citizenship children s understandings and effective practice Rejecting traditional views of children as citizens in preparation the volume explores how young children can and do live as citizens and how early childhood educational settings serve as civic forums Chapters discuss the child as citizen in relation to issues including gender class race tribal status and linguistic diversity and ultimately illustrate how sociocultural processes in early years settings can be harnessed to promote the development of democratic dispositions and skills This book establishes citizenship enactment in early childhood education as a robust and growing research area with the potential to shape research policy and practice worldwide As such it will appeal to researchers and academics with an interest in citizenship education democracy and early childhood education as well as postgraduate students of teacher education and those working across international and comparative education more broadly Chapter 20 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Everybody's Magazine ,1915 Drugs, Oils & Paints ,1924 Meyer Brothers Druggist ,1920 The Illustrated Poultry Record ,1910 Everybody's Speaker, Model Elocutionist and Entertainer Lester Burton Hamersley,1909 American Paint and Oil Dealer ... ,1912 New Masses ,1926 United States Tobacco Journal ,1919 Southern Agriculturist ,1911 Life John Ames Mitchell,1912
