

Study Guide - Bunnicula

IDENTIFY MEANINGS FOLLOW THE FILM

The authors give us several clues throughout the story that indicate to us that the animal mentioned at the start is indeed a vampire rabbit!

EXTRACTS: CHARACTER TRAITS

The author has given us a lot of clues to give her/his/her name. Before the 'Bunnicula' even has fully developed 'fangs' already has provided her/his own commentary with her/his words and 'uh' noises. However, we can't know what she/he means, so we begin to list out her/his words and 'uh' noises and see what we can find out. Then we use the information and comments that reader 'Dustie' has to see if they fit under each other's category for clues as to what to look for next (next to introduce our name).

VISUAL PLANNING: STORYBOARDING

When an author starts to write a story, they often do a lot of 'storyboarding'. This will allow them to see what they want to write about and how they want to write it. It will also help them to see what they want to write about and how they want to write it.
