Edwardian era England Set in Italy and England the story is both a romance and a critique of English society at the beginning of the 20th century Filming Forster Earl G. Ingersoll,2012-02-16 Filming Forster focuses upon the challenges of producing film adaptations of five of E M Forster s novels Rather than follow the older comparative approach which typically damned the film for not being faithful to the novel this project explores the interactive relationship between film and novel That relationship is implicit in the title Filming Forster rather than Forster Filmed which would suggest a completed process A film adaptation forever changes the novel from which it was adapted just as a return to the novel changes the viewer s perceptions of the film Adapting Forster s novels for the screen was postponed until well after the author s death in 1970 because the trustees of the author s estate fulfilled his wish that his work not be filmed Following the appearance of David Lean s film A Passage to India in 1984 four other film adaptations were released within seven years Perhaps the most important was the Merchant Ivory production of Maurice based upon Forster s gay novel published a year after his death That film was among the first to approach same sex relationships between men in a serious respectful and generally optimistic manner A Room with a View Illustrated E M Forster,2020-10-22 A Room with a View is a 1908 novel by English writer E M Forster about a young woman in the restrained culture of Edwardian era England Set in Italy and England the story is both a romance and a humorous critique of English society at the beginning of the 20th century Merchant Ivory produced an award winning film adaptation in 1985 The Modern Library ranked A Room with a View in list of the 100 best English language novels of the 20th century 1998 The novel is set in the early 1900s as upper middle class English women are beginning to lead more independent adventurous lives In the first part Miss Lucy Honeychurch is touring Italy with her overly fussy spinster cousin and chaperone Miss Charlotte Bartlett The novel opens in Florence with the women complaining about their rooms at the Pensione Bertolini They were promised rooms with a view of the River Arno but instead have ones overlooking a drab courtyard Another guest Mr Emerson interrupts their peevish wrangling by spontaneously offering to swap rooms He and his son George both have rooms with views of the Arno and argues Women like looking at a view men don t Charlotte rejects the offer partly because she looks down on the Emersons unconventional behaviour and partially fears it would place them under an unseemly obligation However another guest Mr Beebe an Anglican clergyman persuades Charlotte to accept the offer Charlotte suggests that the Emersons are socialists *A Room with a View by E.M.
