Public Relations Martina Topić-Rutherford, 2026-03-31 Fashion Advertising and Public Relations offers a historically grounded analysis of advertising and public relations in the fashion industry. It provides an in-depth introduction to the history of styles and leading designer innovations in advertising from the early 1900s to the modern day which took place in tandem with societal developments. The text aims to equip the reader with the cultural capital necessary to pursue a career in fashion communication by providing foundational knowledge of the fashion industry's rich history. In line with this aim, it also covers a broad range of advertising and public relations practices in fashion, including fashion event management, press releases, digital media strategies, fashion magazine strategies, crisis communication, and CSR communication. A wealth of pedagogical features are included throughout the book, including reflection points, student exercises, and end-of-chapter discussion questions. This unique textbook will be valuable for students of fashion marketing, business, and communication, and for undergraduates studying public relations and advertising, considering a career in fashion. Comprehensive and ready to use, instructor resources such as dedicated case studies for each chapter, assessment strategies, quizzes, essay topics, and scenario assignments are also offered online to augment teaching.

Neck, 2024 The Implications of new Technology, particularly Artificial intelligence (AI) for International Politics Malam Wasai, 2023-09-18 Submitted Assignment from the year 2023 in the subject Politics General and Theories of International Politics. language English abstract Greater scrutiny is necessary because AI will have a significant impact on international relations, such as putting new topics on the international agenda, challenging geostrategic relations, serving as a tool for diplomats and negotiators, and creating new opportunities and concerns about protecting human rights. Scholars and diplomats have found it helpful to think about the different things that affect international relations by breaking them down into three levels of analysis: individual, state, and international. State-level analysis examines the foreign policy behavior of states in terms of state characteristics. For example, some scholars say that all democracies behave a certain way; they don't fight with other democracies. Artificial intelligence impact governance. As AI
