and others still deviate from or resist the norm He argues that a proper understanding of reflexive embodiment must be alert to these differences and that we must appreciate that our bodies are not passive or inert substances that we can mould as we like They change in ways that we do not intend and of which we are not aware and they may prove difficult to change in the ways we do intend Many theorists in sociology offer perspectives on the link between society and body modification mostly focused in one way or another upon modernity The Frances Shimer Record ... ,1913 Homœopathic therapeutics c.
