Discourse Sara Mills:

Discourse Sara Mills,2004-12 This revised edition provides a broad analysis of the term discourse and a thorough examination of the many theoretical assumptions surrounding it Michel Foucault Sara Mills,2003 Sara Mills offers an introduction to both the ideas of Michel Foucault and the debate surrounding him fully equipping student readers for an encounter with this most influential of thinkers Discourses of Difference Sara Mills,2003-09-02 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Discourse Sara Mills,1997 Mills offers an accessible analysis of discourse explores the theoretical assumptions underlying it This guide for students provides fundamental definitions examples of literary non literary texts developments of the term Michel Foucault Sara Mills,2003 Michel Foucault has been written with students of literature in mind but its relevance like that of Foucault s remarkable work extends far beyond literary studies For anyone seeking to understand Foucault and the complex debates engendered by his work this volume is the essential first step BOOK JACKET Narration, Navigation, and Colonialism Jamal Eddine Benhayoun,2006 The texts collected in this book are all produced and located within the converging fields of navigation and displacement The connection between navigation and narration becomes clear when we realise that most of the authors and heroes of the accounts discussed by the author were in one way or another involved in shipping and navigation and that their accounts were produced within fluid and floating spaces and in the course of intriguing voyages and long cruises In all cases these narratives start with the narrators on board ships and end with them once again taking charge of their ships and sailing back home In this book the author argues that the seventeenth and eighteenth century English narratives of adventure and captivity were not produced within clearly demarcated territories and on dry land but within spaces of indeterminacy struggle and transition The Guerrilla Legacy of the Cuban Revolution Anna Clayfield,2019-05-16 This book examines the way in which the guerrilla origins of the Cuban Revolution have shaped the beliefs and values that have underpinned it since 1959 The book proposes that it is this guerrilla discourse which holds the key to understanding not only the survival of the Revolution itself but the longevity of its leadership Discourse Sara Mills,2006-10-19 Sara Mills offers an accessible and comprehensive analysis of the term discourse and explores the theoretical assumptions underlying it This handy easy to follow pocket guidebook for students provides straightforward working definitions historical developments of the term studied analysis of Michel Foucault discussion of the appropriation of the term discourse by feminist colonial and post colonial discourse theorists examples of literary and non literary texts to illustrate the use of discourse Proceedings of the XVth Congress of the International Comparative Literature Association "Literature as Cultural Memory" : Leiden, 16-22 August 1997: Gendered memories Theo D'haen,2000 Exalted Subjects Sunera Thobani,2007-01-01 An absorbing study Exalted Subjects makes a contribution to the transformation of the racialized and gendered underpinnings of both nation and subject formation Gendered Memories ,2021-11-08 How does gender shape memory What role does literature

play in cultural remembering These are two of the questions to which the present volume is addressed Even if we agree that remembering is not biologically determined we can assume that memory is influenced by the particular social cultural and historical conditions in which individuals find themselves And since men and women generally assume different social and cultural roles their way of remembering should also differ So do women and men remember different events narrate different stories and narrate or read them in different ways Gendered Memories then not only looks at memory gendered by literature but also wants to know how gender shapes the memory of literature Studying the English Language Rob Penhallurick,2017-09-16 In this lively and engaging textbook Rob Penhallurick introduces readers to the diversity and history of the English language and to relevant contemporary and classic work in linguistics Organised into eighteen thematic chapters each of which can be read in one sitting it covers topics such as the effects of dialect and accent on identity swearing and offensive names in English language and gender language planning and theories about the origin of language Chapters are full of entertaining examples illustrations and suggestions for further reading This is an ideal companion for all those new to the study of the English language and essential reading for anyone with a general interest in the subject New to this Edition Three new chapters on the story of American English the spread of English across the world and the work of Noam Chomsky Anglica Wratislaviensia ,2001 International Studies ,2002 The Concept of Race in Toni Morrison's "The Bluest Eye" Issam El Masmodi,2019-11-14 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject African Studies African diaspora grade 14 20 Sultan Moulay Sliman University language English abstract This research paper tends to cover several issues that concern the black race in the light of The Bluest Eye It consists of two parts Each part includes two chapters The first chapter of the first part is about the racialization of beauty In other words it shows how the notion of beauty is culturally constructed The white dominant culture creates standards of beauty which do not allow African Americans to consider themselves as beautiful because of their dark of skin The second chapter further explains how some of the characters in The Bluest Eye long for whiteness because it stands for beauty purity as well as cleanliness It also tries to uncover the veil on the issue of whiteness in various fields including the cinema the American literary canon as well as the Christian creed The first chapter of the second part explores the abusive interactions between black and white characters and shows how a small variation in the color of skin can strike some people of their human nature It also examines the role of capitalism in giving rise to racism and classism The second and the last chapter examines the issue of internalized racism That is to say to what extent all the issues that were mentioned in the previous chapters can affect the psyche of the main characters throughout the novel Multicultural Frontiers Serda Brauns,2011-06 Master s Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Literature Modern Literature grade 2 1 Humboldt University of Berlin Centre for British Studies language English abstract This study aims to achieve a close examination of colonial discourse its function in identity construction and the implications of this process for multicultural politics in The Satanic Verses Moderna språk ,2000 Off the Beaten
