Effective Superintendent-School Board Practices Rene S. Townsend, Gloria L. Johnston, Gwen E. Gross, Peggy Lynch, Lorraine Garcy, Benita Roberts, Patricia B. Novotney, 2006-09-14 Superintendents and board members are provided real life vignettes highlighting challenges and successes information on building relationships and managing conflict and reflective practice questions and self assessment

How School Boards Give Recognition to Staff Canadian Education Association, 1988 In October 1987 the Canadian Education Association sent out 224 questionnaires to find out how school boards give recognition to staff and how they foster a climate which enhances human relations within the school system A total of 103 school boards responded to the survey This report is based on the 103 surveys received It discusses recognizing long service and retiring employees fostering a climate that enhances human relations and staff morale and measures under consideration It also contains a list of school boards participating in the survey

Wannabe U Gaye Tuchman, 2009-10-15 Based on years of observation at a large state university Wannabe U tracks the dispiriting consequences of trading in traditional educational values for loyalty to the market Aping their boardroom idols the new corporate administrators at such universities wander from job to job and reductively view the students there as future workers in need of training Obsessed with measurable successes they stress auditing and accountability which leads to policies of surveillance and control dubiously cloaked in the guise of scientific administration In this eye opening expos of the modern university Tuchman paints a candid portrait of the corporatization of higher education and its impact on students and faculty Like the best campus novelists Tuchman entertains with her acidly witty observations of backstage power dynamics and faculty politics but ultimately Wannabe U is a hard hitting account of how higher education s misguided pursuit of success fails us all
