A Skeptic's Guide to Jesus Christopher Cumo,2016 Western civilization was for centuries held together by the glue of Christianity the religion founded upon the teachings and actions of Jesus to the extent that it may be possible to infer them from the written record This book has grown out of the conviction that the methods of history in particular and of the sciences secondarily have not been applied forcefully enough to an investigation of Jesus We will scrutinize this written record and see how much we actually know This book is in part a confession a literary genre that goes back to Augustine bishop of Hippo in North Africa and Catholic saint Yet my agenda differs from his Augustine lived at a time when the Christian Church was beginning to flex its muscles and make bold claims Today we live in the twilight of the gods to borrow the title of one of Friedrich Nietzsche s last works Religion as a general construct peaked long ago probably before the Enlightenment and is now in retreat This period of decline and demise makes essential at long last a realistic treatment of Jesus of Nazareth As an Italian by birth and upbringing the author was early baptized into the Catholic Church Then his mother died at age 43 He was 15 years old himself at the time and didn t know how to reconcile the notion of a good just loving God with such a tragedy Seeking to know whether the Jesus of the written records can withstand the scrutiny of the sciences and history he eventually found what is the most probative way of examining Jesus a task that forms the core of this book A very long time ago humans had little more than faith to guide them Chris does not write for that mindset but aims to entertain other methods of understanding what we call reality with the sciences philosophy and history as our guides He hopes that their rigor will appeal to those who remain intellectually curious and open minded

A Pilgrim's Guide to Planet Earth, 1974 Stand in the Gap Prayer Journal Bill McCartney, 2014-10-08 I once knew a football coach He was a driven man who had sacrificed much to climb the ladder of his profession This coach loved his job he was energized by competition inspired by success His focus was hard and narrow He traveled far and wide to charm a prized recruit spent most waking hours assessing his team evaluating last week's mistakes sweating over next week's game plan His mind was trained to detect the smallest chink in the enemy's armor to exploit any advantage Most days he was up and out of the house before anybody else was awake Many nights he came home long after everyone had gone to bed He was not however a one dimensional man He was also a devoted Christian unashamed of the gospel energized and outspoken about God He was quick to proclaim the name of Jesus Christ wherever he went He attended church and by all appearances seemed like the real deal a sincere believer on fire for Jesus Christ a humble servant of God If someone would have followed this coach from dawn to midnight he would have seen him praying over his office quarters every morning and heard him on his lunch time walk ask God's blessing over each staff member and player He would have beheld a man who talked a lot about God But in reality he would have discerned a man intoxicated with coaching left with no choice but to conclude Coach says he's excited about God but his actions tell me he's really excited about football He says he's excited about his marriage but he didn't even see his wife today I think he's really excited about football And finally Coaching takes so much of this man's time and energy Coaching not God comes first in his life And he would have been right By now you've guessed the coach is me or was me While I wanted balance in my life there was imbalance I meant well I would share the gospel with anyone I would boldly preach Christ in public share my love for God And there is no doubt in the off season God got substantially more of my time But there was a contradiction in my daily walk with God My heart while it longed for deeper connection to God was sold out to my profession to competition to whatever it took to win football games I knew about winning football I needed to know more about loving the Lord your God with all of your heart and with your soul and with all your strength
