Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History, 1958-1977 Joshua Glick,2018-01-23 Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History 1958 1977 explores how documentarians working between the election of John F Kennedy and the Bicentennial created conflicting visions of the recent and more distant American past Drawing on a wide range of primary documents Joshua Glick analyzes the films of Hollywood documentarians such as David Wolper and Mel Stuart along with lesser known independents and activists such as Kent Mackenzie Lynne Littman and Jes s Salvador Trevi o While the former group reinvigorated a Cold War cultural liberalism the latter group advocated for social justice in a city plagued by severe class stratification and racial segregation Glick examines how mainstream and alternative filmmakers turned to the archives civic institutions and production facilities of Los Angeles in order to both change popular understandings of the city and shape the social consciousness of the nation

Political Knowledge in the Czech Republic Pat Lyons,2017-06-01 The book examines the origins nature and impact of different facets of political knowledge in the Czech Republic between 1967 and 2014 The central argument presented in this book is that evaluating citizens on the basis of objective or factual knowledge alone makes little sense What citizens know about politics comes from a variety of sources that are complementary This is the first detailed study of how much Czechs know about politics and why it matters Here are some of the key findings of this book There are many forms of political knowledge Citizens make decisions using different forms of political knowledge Czechs knowledge of politics has remained constant over time How people answer knowledge questions in surveys matters Political knowledge is shaped by personality traits Factual knowledge is linked with forecasting social change but is not always linked with making correct voting Experts with high levels of knowledge do not agree on what is a correct answer
