

Kensington Valley Hockey Association
Pee Wee AA Hockey Club

THANK YOU for trying out for the Kensington Valley Pee Wee AA 2007-2008 Fall Travel Hockey Team!

Unfortunately, we are faced with the tough decision of picking only a handful of players. The coaching staff has made every effort to make the tryouts a fair and enjoyable experience for every child and parent. We understand that not making a team is a disappointing time in our lives. It is also a time to hold your head high and to be proud of your accomplishments. Every child worked very hard and displayed great admiration for this outstanding sport!

Though you have not been selected for this Fall team, we encourage you to try again in the Spring. We want to remain friends and would like to see how your upcoming season progresses. If you see one of the coaches, other players or parents, let them know how you are doing. We honestly do care for all of these fine kids!

Please continue to practice and play to the best of your abilities. Work on the things that will make you a better hockey player. The coaches had some difficult decisions this tryout and it is your job to put them to the test in the Spring!

We appreciate all of the parents who have helped us out and have become our friends, thank you very much!

Best of Luck,

Tom Miller
Head Coach

Cheerleader Tryout Rejection Letter:

Confessions of a Rebel Debutante Anna Fields, 2010-04-15 A fond funny Southern fried memoir about growing up a proper young lady or not How does a North Carolina native go from being a tomboy with catfish guts on her overalls to becoming the next Scarlett O Hara Turns out it s not so easy Too smart too tall too fat too different Anna Fields was a dud at debbing From tea parties to teased hair to where to hide mini bottles of liquor inside poufy crinoline ballgowns Anna reveals all in a hilarious behindthe scenes glimpse into Deb Culture where for a Southern belle the proof is in the pouf Unless of course she rebels

Scattered Pieces Flora Season, 2009-12-22 In Flora Season s debut work Scattered Pieces she recounts her odyssey of being a child who grows up dealing with the effects of witnessing her mother being battered Today Season is an educator who uses her classroom as her mission field She hopes to bring awareness to the psychological implications of the thousands of children who fall victim to watching a loved one suffer from physical abuse Filled with vivid childhood recollections from as early as age three this intimate story of Season s lifetime quest for understanding acceptance and love will leave readers laughing crying and believing all things are possible It offers a riveting catharsis of a young woman trying to piece together the events of her life that growing up in a house filled with domestic violence shattered The story walks through the inner workings of the mind of a child who has experienced trauma and more disappointments than one young girl should have to experience Season takes us into her world and shows us how she adapted to her pain and despair to finally become a strong motivated woman on a mission

Changing Mindsets of Educational Leaders to Improve Schools Sandra Harris, 2005-05-26 Changing Mindsets of Educational Leaders to Improve Schools responds to the dual question that all graduate and post graduate programs should ask As students learn about leadership does their practice change If so does this changing practice result in school improvement In 16 powerful essays students enrolled in a doctoral program describe what they believed about school leadership prior to their continuing education what their practice looked like then what they believe now and how this changing mindset is reflected in their practice
