of people tend to either try to keep up with the latest fashion trends or they try to make a statement by breaking fashion norms. Like it or not, the common tendency among women is to buy clothing and accessories on a whim. Although men are capable of this as well, it seems to be a problem that is much more prevalent for women. When we see something we like, we buy it even if we don't know when or where to wear it. To justify these impulse purchases, we simply tell ourselves that we'll find some use for it in the future. Because of this reckless habit, we have piles of clothes in our closets waiting to be worn. How many times have you found yourself frustrated looking for the right clothes to wear? Why is it that after digging through your closet for half an hour, you still can't find anything good to wear? If this describes a scenario that you're all too familiar with, then it's time to admit you have a wardrobe problem that needs to be addressed immediately. This may sound far-fetched, but a wardrobe problem can negatively affect your day by causing a great deal of unnecessary anxiety. If you haven't picked out your outfit the night before, you find yourself stressed out first thing in the morning as you try to determine what to wear.
