Arguing about Judaism Peter Cave, Dan Cohn-Sherbok, 2020-03-26 Arguing about Judaism differs from other introductions to Judaism It is unique not solely in its engaging dialogues between a Reform rabbi and a humanist atheist philosopher but also in its presentation of and challenges to the fundamental religious beliefs of the Jewish heritage and their relevance to today s Jewish community The dialogues contain both Jewish narratives and philosophical responses with topics ranging from the nature of God to controversies over sexual relations animal welfare and the environment from antisemitism to the state of Israel and Zionism Although the rabbi and philosopher argue strongly clearly enjoying the cut and thrust of debate they do so with sensitivity charm and respect revealing the rich intricacies of the Jewish religion and contemporary Jewish life While essential reading for those studying Judaism and Jewish history the book aims to stimulate debate more generally amongst Jews and non Jews the religious and the atheist all those with a general interest in religion and philosophy

Three Perspectives: Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Steven H. Propp, 2009-12-30 Youre Jewish arent you This blunt question is the way that college freshman Richard Cohn is introduced to an outspoken fellow student named Dov Epstein who calls himself a Messianic Jew and believes that God has a special purpose for the Jewish people in these Last Days Raised by secular Jewish parents Richard is completely oblivious to his own Jewish background until this ongoing dialogue forces him to confront his own heritage The two young men vigorously argue with each other over the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible particularly its reputed predictions of a Messiah Christian doctrines such as the Trinity and most significantly about the identity and significance of Jesus of Nazareth The rigorous process of self examination this initiates leads Richard to embrace his Jewish identity even as he vehemently denies the same for Dov The two ultimately become fast friends but as they progress from an academic environment to the professional world they are challenged by racist statements made by prominent national figures anti Semitic doctrines such as Christian Identity which teaches that white Anglo Saxons are the true Israel and also purported scholars who deny the reality of the Holocaust itself Circumstances in life connect them with a young Iranian migr named Jahangir Khatami whose Muslim beliefs conflict strongly with their own Yet when a violent incident brings the three of them together they are forced to reexamine not just their differences but their similarities While they clash over the ideals of Zionism and its ramifications in the modern State of Israel they are united in their horror over the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Join a diverse cast of characters some of whom appeared in the authors earlier book Beyond Heaven and Earth in a probing exploration that may help you reconsider just what it means to be Jewish Christian or Muslim in the modern world Getting to Heart of Interfaith Pastor Don Mackenzie, PhD, Rabbi Ted Falcon, PhD, Imam Jamal Rahman, 2010-12-29 A deeply personal journey to interfaith collaboration that offers hope for an inclusive and healing way of being together in the world Too often religion seems to fuel more hatred than love more conflict than collaboration Interfaith Talk Radios interfaith amigosa pastor a rabbi and an Imam provide a rich understanding of the road to interfaith collaboration by sharing their stories challenges and the inner spiritual work necessary to go beyond tolerance to a vital inclusive spirituality From their deep commitment and lived experience they present ways we can work together to transcend the differences that have divided us historically Together they explore The five stages of the interfaith journey The power of our stories The core of our traditions The promises and problems of our traditions New dimensions of spiritual identity And much more Along with inspiring insights and encouragement for tapping into the promise of interfaith dialogue they provide practical actions additional readings and discussion questions to help you embody their revolutionary spirit of healing The Triple Package Jed Rubenfeld, Amy Chua, 2014-02-05 Why do Jews win so many Nobel Prizes and Pulitzer Prizes Why are Mormons running the business and finance sectors Why do the children of even impoverished and poorly educated Chinese immigrants excel so remarkably at school It may be taboo to say it but some cultural groups starkly outperform others The bestselling husband and wife team Amy Chua author of Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother and Jed Rubenfeld author of The Interpretation of Murder reveal the three essential components of success its hidden spurs inner dynamics and its potentially damaging costs showing how ultimately when properly understood and harnessed the Triple Package can put anyone on their chosen path to success
