African American Nationalist Literature of the 1960s Sandra Hollin Flowers, 2019-09-25 Bringing together political theory and literary works this study recreates the political climate which made the 1960s an unforgettable era for young black Americans A chapter on The Many Shades of Black Nationalism for instance explains why black nationalism is known by more than a dozen different names how events in Africa influenced black nationalism in America why Malcolm X's death had a greater impact on nationalism than did his life and how the United States government unwittingly became nationalism's ally Another chapter explores the bitter feud between the dominant factions of the 1960s cultural and revolutionary nationalists This feud erupted in both verbal and armed warfare and generated an abundance of political theory and literary works much of which is out of circulation but is examined in the study Nationalist poetry theater and fiction are each treated in separate chapters which exemplify the aesthetic and political concerns of this memorable period in American history and letters Aside from its unique combination of artistic and political works what makes this book important is the current revival of nationalist sentiment in African American life and arts Though this revival is closely identified with the nationalism of the 1960s it lacks the focus of that period This study explains what gave the nationalism of the 1960s its focus how that focus was expressed in art forms and why 1960s nationalism continues to influence the African American identity and will probably do so well into the twenty first century

Revolutionaries to Race Leaders Cedric Johnson, The Black Power movement represented a key turning point in American politics Disenchanted by the hollow progress of federal desegregation during the 1960s many black citizens and leaders across the United States demanded meaningful self determination The popular movement they created was marked by a vigorous artistic renaissance militant political action and fierce ideological debate Exploring the major political and intellectual currents from the Black Power era to the present Cedric Johnson reveals how black political life gradually conformed to liberal democratic capitalism and how the movement's most radical aims the rejection of white aesthetic standards redefinition of black identity solidarity with the Third World and anticapitalist revolution were gradually eclipsed by more moderate aspirations Although Black Power activists transformed the face of American government Johnson contends that the evolution of the movement as a form of ethnic politics restricted the struggle for social justice to the world of formal politics Johnson offers a compelling and theoretically sophisticated critique of the rhetoric and strategies that emerged in this period Drawing on extensive archival research he reinterprets the place of key intellectual figures such as Harold Cruse and Amiri Baraka and influential organizations including the African Liberation Support Committee the National Black Political Assembly and the National Black Independent Political Party in postsegregation black politics while at the same time identifying the contradictions of Black Power radicalism itself Documenting the historical retreat from radical democratic struggle Revolutionaries to Race Leaders ultimately calls for the renewal of popular struggle and class conscious politics Cedric Johnson is assistant professor of political science at Hobart and William Smith Colleges CA Te Am Anthem 2007 Mod Holt Rinehart & Winston, 2007

The Cold War and the Origins of Foreign Relations of the People's Republic of China NIU Jun, 2018-10-16 In The Cold War and the Origin of Diplomacy of People's Republic of China Niu Jun offers a new analytical framework for understanding the Cold War and PRC's diplomacy from 1949 to 1955 He sees it as an interactive historical process between the Cold War China's domestic transition from revolution to nation building and the revolutionary ideology in the minds of Chinese leaders and Chinese people Niu Jun's analytical framework sheds fresh light on the widely studied events of PRC's diplomacy such as China's alliance with the Soviet Union and confrontation with the U.S. military actions on the Korean Peninsula and in Indochina settlement of the first Taiwan Strait crisis development of nuclear weapons and so on

Transatlantic Renaissances Kathryn Stelmach Artuso, 2013 The impulses that fired the Southern Literary Renaissance echoed the impetus behind the Irish Literary Revival at the turn of the twentieth century when Ireland sought to demonstrate its cultural equality with any European nation and disentangle itself from English imposed stereotypes Seeking to prove that the South was indeed the cultural equal of greater America despite the harsh realities of political defeat economic scarcity and racial strife Southern writers embarked on a career to re-imagine the American South and to re-invent literary criticism Transatlantic Renaissances Literature of Ireland and the American South traces the influence of the Irish Revival upon the Southern Renaissance exploring how the latter looked to the former for guidance artistic innovation and models for self-invention and regional renovation While Deleuze and Guattari's model for minor literature refers to minority or regional authors who work within a major language for purposes of subversion Artuso modifies their term along generic and thematic lines to refer to errant female juveniles within subsidiary genres whose nonconformist development threatens to disrupt the dominant patriarchal culture of a region or nation Using the themes of initiation and maturation to anchor the book Artuso analyzes how the volatile development of young women in revivalist texts often reflects or questions larger growth pangs and patterns including the evolution of the literary revival itself and the development of a regional minority group that must work within a dominant culture language and nation while seeking methods of subversion With minor literature as the container for undervalued genres such as popular fiction and short stories often considered an author's juvenilia this work investigates not only how these texts challenge the authoritative claims of the novel but also scrutinizes the renaissance trope of female rebirth as the revivalists often figured cultural national or regional regeneration through the metamorphoses or maturation of female protagonists such as Cathleen n Houlihan Scarlett O Hara and Virgie Rainey Drawing upon New Historical New Critical and postcolonial approaches Artuso examines works by Lady Gregory Margaret Mitchell Eudora Welty Elizabeth Bowen Jean Toomer and James Joyce Power and Principle in International Affairs Gordon Clark Schloming,1991
