

Classical Knowledge (Chapter 27): Imperialism

Directions: Using the readings, the textbook, correct subject and literature questions thoroughly in paragraph form.

1. Explain why the United States was so interested in imperialism in the late 19th century.
The United States was interested in imperialism in the late 19th century because they felt it was their right to bring civilization to the rest of the world. They also wanted to get more resources and to have a stronger military. The United States was also interested in imperialism because they felt it was their right to bring civilization to the rest of the world. They also wanted to get more resources and to have a stronger military.
2. Explain how the United States acquired the Philippines and how the United States justified its acquisition.
The United States acquired the Philippines in 1898 after the Spanish-American War. The United States justified its acquisition by saying that it was their right to bring civilization to the Philippines. They also wanted to get more resources and to have a stronger military.
3. Explain how the United States acquired Hawaii and how the United States justified its acquisition.
The United States acquired Hawaii in 1898 after the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy. The United States justified its acquisition by saying that it was their right to bring civilization to Hawaii. They also wanted to get more resources and to have a stronger military.
4. Analyzing how imperialism affected the lives of the people of the United States.
Imperialism affected the lives of the people of the United States in many ways. It gave the United States more resources and a stronger military. It also gave the United States more territory and more people. However, imperialism also had some negative effects. It caused the United States to spend a lot of money on military and it caused the United States to have a lot of debt.
