Defence Intelligence Forms 2016:

Perspectives on Military Intelligence from the First World War to Mali Floribert Baudet, Eleni Braat, Jeoffrey van Woensel, Aad Wever, 2017-07-01 With a foreword by Michael Kowalski Chairman of the Netherlands Intelligence Studies Association Many intelligence practitioners feel that the statutory footing on which intelligence agencies have been placed forms an impediment to confronting unprecedented contemporary challenges On the basis of case studies spanning the period from the First World War to the present this book argues that while the intelligence community in the era of globalization has indeed come to face new and complex challenges that require adaptation operating in demanding and changing environments is not new at all This book questions the conventional wisdom of 9 11 or the end of the Cold War as caesurae It also argues that the ability to adapt innovate question and learn from past experience is crucial for the success of intelligence organizations rather than ever expanding funding Agencies ability to reflect adapt and learn from experience determines their subsequent capability to deliver One key development resulting from globalization is the marked increase in cooperation between intelligence agencies of different countries on the one hand and between investigative agencies and intelligence agencies on the other This has led to concerns over human rights and privacy and to increased calls for accountability and improved oversight as the increase in cooperation between organizations operating globally also provides scope for the circumvention of domestic restrictions This book proposes an instrument to assess the effectiveness of existing accountability arrangements and offers new insights into the role of military intelligence in a number of crises e g the 1962 Cold War confrontation over Western New Guinea and the functioning of intelligence in peacekeeping operations ranging from Srebrenica to Mali Thematically comprehensive it offers a mixture of historical legal operational and policy aspects analyzed through the lens of institutional learning bringing together academic and practitioners perspectives The focus lies not only on the familiar Anglo Saxon experience but also on cases from India the Netherlands South East Asia Bosnia Lebanon and Mali The book is aimed at both scholars and practitioners studying and or working in the field of civil and military intelligence and those involved in international relations and international humanitarian law human rights law It brings together contributions from authors who spoke at the Conference to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Dutch Military Intelligence and Security Service organized by the Netherlands Intelligence Studies Association NISA and from a number of authors who were specifically invited to participate About the editors Floribert Baudet is Associate Professor of Strategy at the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda Eleni Braat is Assistant Professor at the Department of History and Art History at Utrecht University Jeoffrey van Woensel is a military historian who works at the Veteraneninstituut in Doorn and Aad Wever is an independent scholar who formerly worked at Saxion University of Applied Sciences in Enschede and Ferris State University MI USA and who is now retired Specific to this book Offers a mixture of historical legal operational and policy aspects analyzed through the lens of institutional learning Brings together academic and practitioners perspectives Focusses not only on the familiar Anglo Saxon experience but also presents cases from India the Netherlands South East Asia Bosnia Lebanon and Mali

The Right To Be Forgotten Franz Werro,2020-03-06 This book examines the right to be forgotten and finds that this right enjoys recognition mostly in jurisdictions where privacy interests impose limits on freedom of expression According to its traditional understanding this right gives individuals the possibility to preclude the media from revealing personal facts that are no longer newsworthy at least where no other interest prevails Cases sanctioning this understanding still abound in a number of countries In today s world however the right to be forgotten has evolved and it appears in a more multi faceted way It can involve for instance also the right to access control and even erase personal data Of course these prerogatives depend on various factors and competing interests of both private and public nature which again require careful balancing Due to ongoing technological evolution it is likely that the right to be forgotten in some of its new manifestations will become increasingly relevant in our societies

High Stakes Treason Ian Trottier,2025-07-28 High Stakes Treason presents verified open source information to show former CIA Director John O Brennan conducted a long term criminal scheme to manipulate intelligence protocols and key counterterrorism CT personnel to increase the value of stock he held illegally to make millions Brennan repeatedly filed or caused to be filed false official statements to hide his illegal ownership of stock in an indispensable government contracting company while maintaining his control over the CT initiatives of the Obama Administration a clear conflict of interest High Stakes Treason uses Brennan s own words to describe in detail how he established sweeping new intelligence protocols for the National Counterterrorism Center NCTC and how these protocols enabled complete control over counterterror activities of the entire US government The book shows specific examples of how Brennan then apparently used a single unwitting NCTC analyst as his personal cutout to implement the new intel protocols and hide specific intelligence from the FBI and the CIA enabling successful terror attacks against the United States including the Boston Marathon Bombing High Stakes Treason s use of documentation reveals the identity of the NCTC analyst and documents Brennan s apparent efforts to conceal his meetings with this analyst through multiple false entries in the White House Visitor Log It also presents SEC documents which show Brennan was able to increase the value of his stock from 50 000 to 4 850 000 as Congress increased counterterrorism funding after each successful attack on our country

Inclusive Theory and Practice in Special Education van Rensburg, Henriette, O'Neill, Shirley, 2020-01-03 Inclusive education retains significant complexity associated with creating a definition and there is significant importance within the surrounding narratives reflecting the broader definitions Due to the flexibility within the definition investigating current practices across an array of definitions becomes essential to developing best practices in special education Inclusive Theory and Practice in Special Education is an essential research book that examines current shifts in the field within the overarching philosophy of inclusion and inclusive education It reports recent research that focuses on the experiences of teachers and students in classrooms and ways of enhancing the practices of inservice teachers and early career teachers as well as the preparation of preservice teachers Besides presenting research from these perspectives it also addresses a selection of broader issues that impact on policy and curriculum thus identifying related concerns including those of the wider community Highlighting a wide range of topics such as learning disabilities student mobility and early childhood education this publication is ideal for researchers professionals administrators curriculum designers academicians policymakers and students

Security Cooperation between Western States Olivier Lewis, 2022-08-22 This book examines security cooperation between Western states Security cooperation occurs between Western i e European and North American states as a coping mechanism as an imperfect substitute for integration The book investigates the reasons for cooperation what Aristotle called the final cause as well as the material formal and efficient causes of cooperation Such a causal explanation is based on a Critical Realist philosophy of social science The book is also based on an embedded multiple case study the states studied are the United States France and Luxembourg Within each state the embedded subcases are three types of state security organizations the armed forces law enforcement and intelligence agencies which have rarely been compared in this way Comparing different types of states and different types of state security organizations has allowed temporal spatial national and functional variation in cooperation to be identified and theorized The empirical evidence studied includes participant observations at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and documents such as state policy documents annual reports by organizations reports by parliaments and non governmental organizations autobiographies books by investigative journalists and articles by newspapers and magazines The book is also based on a score of elite interviews with ambassadors diplomatic liaisons ministerial advisors foreign ministry officials and military commanders This book will be of much interest to students of security studies intelligence studies military studies and International Relations in general
