Participant	Lexical Difficulties
1	Lexical difficulty is related to the difficulties of word choice when writing a journal. The difference between academic text and non-academic text is located in its formality. So, for the difficulties, I still have a limited vocabulary. I was afraid that the words I had chosen were not formal. That is the difficulty. Then, I was confused about placing the linking words, such as where I should place, therefore, in addition, and hence. (Participant 1, offline interview 23/06/2022).
2	It seems like I was not too familiar with lexical difficulties. The difficulty is there are many repeated linking words when writing the academic text because I only know a few suitable words. Sometimes, I need a deep understanding to find appropriate linking words. (Participant 2, online interview 25/06/2022).
3	I have heard about lexical difficulties. In the academic writing subject, I was assigned to create a mini-research with a specified number of words. There are so many words for me. The difficulty was from the vocabulary. I was not careful with the use of vocabulary and linking words. (Participant 3, online interview 22/06/2022).
