El Ford Falcon:

Driving Terror Karen Robert, 2025-03-04 Driving Terror tells the story of twenty four Ford autoworkers in Argentina who were tortured and disappeared for their union activism in 1976 miraculously survived and pursued a decades long quest for truth and justice In December 2018 more than four decades after their ordeal the men won a historic human rights case against a military commander and two retired Ford Argentina executives who were convicted of crimes against humanity The book uses this David and Goliath story to explore issues of labor repression and corporate complicity with Argentina s last military dictatorship as well as to shed light on the enormous obstacles facing victims of such crimes Its emphasis on working class activism in the arenas of labor and human rights introduces North American readers to a new narrative of contemporary Argentine history The Ford survivors story intertwines with the symbolic evolution of the car the men helped build at Ford the Falcon sedan The political polarization and violence of the Cold War era transformed the Falcon from a popular family car to a tool of state terror after the coup of 1976 when it became associated with the widespread practice of disappearance Its meaning continued to evolve after the return to democracy when artists and activists used it as a symbol of military impunity during Argentina s long term struggles over justice and memory Herdbook British Friesian Cattle Society, 1923

THE GORGON SNAKES Newton Osborne, 2025-04-11 Dr Diego de Olano an American university professor comes across a novel lethal disease After investigating several cases he suspects a laboratory in South Africa of performing illegal medical research on poor Black patients using genetically modified microorganisms Thrust into a search for truth Diego travels undercover to Africa and when discovered goes on the run from a ruthless Afrikaner government official His relief at escaping to the US mainland is short lived and unwelcome Following threats to his life he returns to Panama his native country and to the woman he loves but the tentacles of evil find him and destroy his clandestine research lab Diego continues to work while being led through dangerous jungle trails and treacherous waters by an indigenous friend Wanted dead or alive by a well funded rogue Panamanian military man with a personal grudge Diego is in a race against time to solve the lethal disease he has traced to a laboratory virus and to find a cure before more people are infected Rethinking

Testimonial Cinema in Postdictatorship Argentina Veronica Garibotto, 2019-01-07 For roughly two decades after the collapse of the military regime in 1983 testimonial narrative was viewed and received as a privileged genre in Argentina Today however academics and public intellectuals are experiencing memory fatigue a backlash against the concepts of memory and trauma just as memory and testimonial films have reached the center of Argentinian public discourse In Rethinking Testimonial Cinema in Postdictatorship Argentina Veronica Garibotto looks at the causes for this reticence and argues that rather than discarding memory texts for their repetitive excess it is necessary to acknowledge them and their exhaustion as discourses of the present By critically examining how trauma theory and subaltern studies have previously been applied to testimonial cinema Garibotto rereads Argentinian films produced since 1983 and calls for an alternate interpretive framework at the intersection of semiotics theories of affect scholarship on hegemony and the ideological uses of documentary and fiction She argues that recurrent concepts such as trauma mourning memory and subalternity miss how testimonial films have changed over time shifting from subaltern narratives to official hegemonic and iconic accounts Her work highlights the urgent need to continue to study these types of narratives particularly at a time when military dictatorships have become entrenched in Latin America and memory narratives proliferate worldwide Although Argentina is Garibotto's focus her theory can be adapted to other contexts in which narratives about recent political conflicts have shifted from alternative versions of history to official hegemonic accounts such as in Spanish Chilean Uruguayan Brazilian South African and Holocaust testimonies Garibotto's study of testimonial cinema moves us to pursue a broader ideological analysis of the links between film and historical representation Representing History, Class, and Gender in Spain and Latin America Carolina Rocha, Georgia Seminet, 2012-07-25 This anthology explores the role of children and teenagers in Latin American and Spanish Film as protagonists victims and witnesses of societies polarized by and still grappling with the consequences of political divisions
