Tribble,Anne Trubek,2003 This reader considers how writing practices old and new affect the ways we write read think and looks at how writing is influenced by historical events cultural values and technological advances This challenging reader examines transformations in reading and writing from the oral traditions of the pre print era to the hypertext of the digital age to analyze the impact of these changes on our reading and writing practices With its historical and cultural analysis perspectives it has appeal for any instructor interested in having their students think critically about the changing nature of writing The readings which include ancient philosophy personal essays literary narratives and accessible scholarly discussions all centered on the past present and future of writing are intellectually ambitious and encourage active critical reading A pedagogical system of Suggested Groupings in the back of the text clusters the readings under specific themes that explore the complex relationships between the selections Innovative writing assignments let students experiment with different communicative forms and media Numerous visual images emphasize visual literacy

Writing Space J. David Bolter,1991 This book is a study of the computer as a new technology for reading and writing a technology that may replace the printing press as our principal medium of symbolic communication One of the main subjects of Writing Spaceis hypertext a technique that allows scientists scholars and creative writers to construct texts that interact with the needs and desires of the reader Bolter explores both the theory and practice of hypertext demonstrating that the computer as hypertext represents a new stage in the long history of writing one that has far reaching implications in the fields of human and artificial intelligence cognitive science philosophy semiotics and literary theory Through a masterful integration of introductory historical illustrative and theoretical material as well as an accompanying diskette containing a sample of hypertextual writing Bolter supports his claim that the computer will carry literacy into a new age the age of electronic text that will emerge from the age of print that is now passing His reflections on literacy in contemporary culture lead him to a compelling conclusion ironically cultural literacy is becoming almost synonymous with computer literacy
