Each loyal dog has its own story to tell and each owner or handler has individual reasons for loving them but these dogs have one thing in common: they are all truly dog heroes. Perfect for lovers of Marley Me From Baghdad with Love and Walking Ollie. Secret Service Dogs Maria Goodavage, 2017-10-31. In an age fraught with terrorism, United States Secret Service canine teams risk their lives to safeguard the president, vice president, their families, visiting heads of state, and a host of others. Unprecedented access to these heroic dog teams has allowed a fascinating first-time ever look at a very special breed of heroes. Wherever the president goes, there will be dogs. They'll be there no matter what the country or state. They'll be there regardless of the political climate, the danger level, the weather, or the hour. If you let down your guard on the job, says Special Agent Bill G, canine program manager, it can change the history of the world. It's a burden Secret Service dog handlers take extremely seriously, regardless of their specialty. Tactical dog handlers on the White House lawn, handlers whose dogs sniff for explosives around the world, and those who walk their amiable floppy-eared dogs up and down Pennsylvania Avenue all live one common mantra: Not on my watch. Or my dog's. Secret Service Dogs immerses readers into the heart of this elite world of canine teams who protect first families, popes, and presidential candidates; the selection of dogs and handlers; their year-round training; their missions around the world; and most important, the bond, the glue that holds the teams together and can mean the difference between finding bombs and terrorists or letting them slip by. These animals will gladly run into a hail of gunfire, says Stew, a Secret Service ERT tactical canine unit supervisor. All they ask in return is for their handlers to throw the ball with them, pet them, and talk to them in an embarrassingly high voice. Secret Service Dogs celebrates the Secret Service's most unforgettable canine heroes. It is a must-read for fans of Maria Goodavage, anyone who wants a rare inside view of the United States Secret Service, or just loves dogs. Dogs at War Madeline Swan, 2011-05-01. From the First World War to the present day, animals have played a key part in warfare, and many have suffered and died as a result. Dogs at War is a moving tribute to their efforts and sacrifice, illustrated with evocative photographs and paintings. The country, 1876. The Gentleman's Magazine, 1839. Dog Breaking William Nelson Hutchinson, 1882. Shaping the Wolf Within Your Dog Nathan B. Childs, 2004. Shaping the Wolf Within Your Dog is a comparison study of wolf and dog behavior. It is also a comprehensive guide for living in harmony with dogs. We know dogs are genetically related to the wolf, and both exhibit identical instincts, behaviors, temperaments, and dispositions, and both abide to the law of nature that contends for any animal grouping to survive: there must be social order and communication between its members. Knowing this, we should learn all we can about wolf behavior and incorporate that knowledge with our dogs. By learning how pack animals establish social order and communicate with one another, we can use this information to shape our dogs' natural instincts without having to use food bribes or violence. When we communicate in our dogs' language, we will be able to communicate our leadership. The outcome will be predictable for we will be using the same methods of an alpha wolf when he establishes and maintains social order with a pack of wolves We will be shaping the same wolf instincts that are intact and engaged in each of our dogs

Shaping the Wolf Within Your Dog illuminates The natural behavior of canines The language of canines How alphas lead their packs How alphas discipline and show affection The hierarchy of the wolf social order The natural friendliness loyalty and devotion of pack members How to pick the best pup from a litter How to establish social order with pups Basic obedience and off lead obedience Family protection training
