STRATEGY

SENTENCE STARTERS FOR RESPONSE

Making Connections

- ★ text to text
- ★ text to self
- ★ text to world

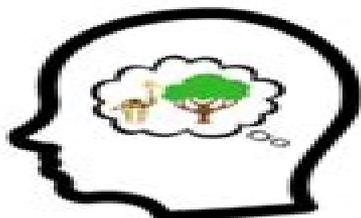

Strategic readers connect what they know with what they are reading.

Always explain WHY you made the connection (because...).

- _____ reminds me of...
- I connected _____ to when...
- _____ made me remember a time when...
- _____ relates to my life because...
- _____ makes me think about...
- _____ makes me remember...
- I really had a strong connection to _____ because...
- _____ is familiar to me because...
- _____ is similar to...

Include the textual reference in each blank and complete the sentence with your connection.

Visualizing

Strategic readers picture what is happening as they read.

Choose a piece of writing that contains descriptive language and strong verbs and share the image that was created in your mind.

Also EXPLAIN what visualizing helped you understand/infer about the story/characters.

- The description of _____ helped me visualize...
- When it said “_____”, I could imagine...

Inferring

Strategic readers “read between the lines” and make an educated guess based on evidence and reasoning.

When making an inference, you should answer two questions:

- ★ What is my inference?
- ★ What information did I use to make this inference?

- From the text clues, I can conclude that...
- Based on what the text says and what I know, I think...
- This evidence suggests...
- That is probably why...
- Although the writer does not come right out and say it, I can figure out that....
