Paired Passage 1

Name: _____

Green Spaces Matter

Did you know that having gardens and parks in our neighborhoods makes everyone healthier and happier? It's true! Green spaces are essential for communities, yet many areas lack these valuable resources.

First, gardens and parks improve our physical health. When people have access to green spaces, they are more likely to exercise outdoors. Walking, running, or playing in natural areas helps keep our bodies strong. Gardens also provide fresh fruits and vegetables, which are important for a nutritious diet. Many community gardens donate extra produce to local food banks, helping families who cannot afford healthy food.

Additionally, green spaces benefit our mental health. Studies show that spending just 30 minutes in nature reduces stress and anxiety. Students who have access to green areas concentrate better in school and perform better on tests. Even looking at plants through a window can improve someone's mood and focus!

Gardens and parks also help our environment. Plants absorb harmful gases and produce oxygen, making our air cleaner. They provide homes for important creatures like birds and beneficial insects. Gardens can reduce flooding by absorbing rainwater that would otherwise overflow storm drains.

Unfortunately, many neighborhoods, especially in urban areas, lack sufficient green spaces. Some communities have started turning vacant lots into gardens. Schools are creating outdoor classrooms and vegetable gardens to help students learn valuable skills.

The Cookie Mystery

An empty cookie jar and a pile of chip cookies just sitting on the counter. "Where are the terrible cookies?" asked Mrs. Smith, who was sitting quietly reading on the couch. "What are you talking about?" asked Mr. Smith. "I just passed the kitchen floor like a defective from a factory. I saw three dozen cookies for the school bake sale tomorrow, and now they're gone!" Mrs. Smith was sitting in the kitchen. "Who would eat that many cookies?" she asked. "Your favorite book can wait. We have a mystery to solve!" Mrs. Smith and Mr. Smith searched for clues around the house. They found a trail of crumbs leading toward the back door. Outside, they saw the steps of their treehouse. "That's it!" Mrs. Smith whispered excitedly. "The thief went outside!" Mr. Smith looked inside. There, sitting in a circle, were four children who had been sitting on the stolen cookies. "We organized a cookie hunt!" Mrs. Smith said.
