Synthesis of Highway Practice National Cooperative Highway Research Program,1995 Club Board Members Guide
John L. Carroll,2001 Although written with the private club in mind the common sense solutions John Carroll offers to those responsible for overseeing the running of an organization apply to any board member Carroll has distilled the complexities of leadership and governance into practical action With thirty five years of experience with boards of all types he shows how a fine tuned sense of people skills coupled with an understanding of how the club functions creates an atmosphere where decisions can be made for the benefit of the club and all its members Resolution of Disputes to Avoid Construction Claims Barry B. Bramble,Mark D. Cipollini,1995 This synthesis report will be of interest to transportation agency administrators including contract administrators construction design claims and scheduling engineers project staff and managers attorneys and construction contractors This synthesis describes the state of the practice with respect to procedures used throughout the United States to resolve disputes to avoid construction claims Fair and timely resolution of contract disputes may help lessen highway construction project administrative costs benefitting the public the agency and the contractor This report of the Transportation Research Board examines the underlying reasons for contract disputes and identifies methods for dispute avoidance and resolution It complements the information in NCHRP Synthesis of Highway Practice 105 Construction Contract Claims Causes and Methods of Settlement which focused on the causes of disputes This synthesis further emphasizes finding ways to settle disputes at their inception before they become formal claims or lawsuits
