Calendar Dr. Laurence Hull Stookey, 2011-12-01 A probing but clearly written book Calendar will find an appreciative audience beyond academia and clergy to the laity of the church choirs and their directors worship planners adult study groups and others who want to understand better the church's times of preparation and celebration Calendar centers largely on theological meaning and parish practice in relation to liturgical time Deliberately almost no attention is given to detailed historical development much of which is exceedingly complex in its origins and technical in its detail An appendix entitled Forgetting What You Were Always Taught Or This Book in a Nutshell aptly describes the radical reordering that Stookey believes occurs when our understanding of time and the story of Jesus takes its bearings from the Incarnation So just as the Christian week begins with Sunday the day of Resurrection Stookey follows the Christian year beginning with the season of Easter and only then Lent Christmas then Advent Illuminating discussions of

Ordinary and Extraordinary Time and the Sanctoral Cycle follow Exciting Holiness Tristram, 2007 Common Worship reintroduced the Anglican Church to its saints those 232 men and women whose examples excite others to holy living and to whom a date in the calendar is designated for their remembrance each year It had already sold more than 10 000 copies when lacking an equivalent liturgical resource for the extra saints days in the Celtic calendars the Church of Ireland the Episcopal Church of Scotland and the Church in Wales requested an expanded version to include additional prayers and readings for many locally celebrated saints who shaped the faith in these islands Now reissued by popular demand in a more convenient smaller format here is a complete resource for Eucharistic worship on all festivals and feast days It remains the only volume of its kind providing prayers and Scripture readings for each day of the calendars of four national Anglican provinces It has now been updated to include five additional commemorations added to the Church of England's calendar
