Appendix References and Resources Teaching Kindergarten Julie Diamond, Betsy Grob, Fretta Reitzes, 2015 Today's kindergarten teachers face enormous challenges to reach district mandated academic standards This book presents a model for 21st century kindergartens that is rooted in child centered learning and also shaped by the needs and goals of the present day Classroom teachers working with diverse populations of students and focusing on issues of social justice provide vivid descriptions of classroom life across urban and rural communities Teacher reflections and commentary from the editors link teacher decisions to principles of good practice Teaching Kindergarten illustrates how a progressive learning centered approach can not only meet the equity and accountability goals of the Common Core State Standards but go well beyond that to educate the whole child Book Features Rich examples of learner centered teaching in diverse public school settings Depictions of integrated curricula in science social studies math arts and language arts that address Common Core and other standards Connections to recent developmental research and pedagogy Programs promoting social and cultural awareness Photographs of children's projects and a list of children's books The teachers you are about to read tell stories no one has heard before at a time when it is difficult to hear the individual voices in the classroom No grade level needs this soul searching examination more than kindergarten This book maps a remarkable number of journeys toward this goal I hope teachers will be inspired to add their own voices to the process of renewal Vivian Gussin Paley internationally renowned educator author and classroom teacher We need this book It speaks eloquently to what good practice looks like in real schools as well as what it means to be a good teacher These are stories of amazing educators whose work addresses what equity is all about starting with 5 year olds It's too bad the next 12 years of school are not more like these kindergarten classrooms Deborah Meier education activist senior scholar at New York University's Steinhardt School of Education

Handbook on the Science of Early Literacy Sonia Q. Cabell, Susan B. Neuman, Nicole Patton Terry, 2023-05-02

Synthesizing the best current knowledge about early literacy this comprehensive handbook brings together leading researchers from multiple disciplines The volume identifies the instructional methods and areas of focus shown to be most effective for promoting young children's PreK-2 growth in reading writing oral language and the connections among them In 33 chapters the Handbook covers conceptual foundations development and instruction of both code and meaning related literacy skills professional development and family engagement supporting equity across populations and learning beyond traditional boundaries including digital and out of school contexts Highlighted throughout are issues around access to high quality instruction working with multilingual populations and data based decision making and interventions Psychology as the Science of Human Being Jaan Valsiner, Giuseppina Marsico, Nandita Chaudhary, Tatsuya Sato, Virginia Dazzani, 2015-09-09 This book brings together a group of scholars from around the world who view psychology as the science of human ways of being Being refers to the process of existing through construction of the human world here rather than to an ontological state This collection includes work that has the goal to establish the newly developed area of cultural psychology as the science of specifically human ways of existence It comes as a next step after the behaviorist turn that has dominated psychology over most of the 20th century and like its successor in the form of cognitivism kept psychology away from addressing issues of specifically human ways of relating with their worlds Such linking takes place through intentional human actions through the creation of complex tools for living entertainment and work Human beings construct tools to make other tools Human beings invent religious systems notions of economic rationality and legal systems they enter into aesthetic enjoyment of various aspects of life in art music and literature they have the capability of inventing national identities that can be summoned to legitimate one s killing of one s neighbors or being killed oneself The contributions to this volume focus on the central goal of demonstrating that psychology as a science needs to start from the phenomena of higher psychological functions and then look at how their lower counterparts are re organized from above That kind of investigation is inevitably interdisciplinary it links psychology with anthropology philosophy sociology history and developmental biology Various contributions to this volume are based on the work of Lev Vygotsky George Herbert Mead Henri Bergson and on traditions of Ganzheitspsychologie and Gestalt psychology Psychology as the Science of Human Being is a valuable resource to psychologists sociologists philosophers biologists and anthropologists alike
