HISTORICAL
The Great Controversy in Progress

ESCHATOLOGICAL (End-time events)
The Great Controversy Consummated (Finished)

Prologue (1:1-8)

Testimony of Jesus 1:2
 Blessed is he who reads 1:3
 Behold, He is coming 1:7
 I am the Alpha and the Omega 1:8

General Observations

The pattern is not slavishly precise, e.g. Christ's promise to come is found twice in the epilogue, but once in the prologue. The pattern follows a method but the method is not more important than the message. Don't worry about the fact that the 'divisions' do not line up with the chapter breaks. The chapter breaks were not given by God but were added later.

Epilogue (22:8-17)

I, Jesus sent this testimony 22:16
 Blessed is he who keeps 22:7
 Behold, I am coming soon 22:12, 20
 I am the Alpha and the Omega 22:13

Reading the Prophets as Christian Scripture (Reading Christian Scripture) Eric J. Tully,2022-03-29 This survey textbook is grounded in the view that the prophetic books of the Old Testament should be read as Christian Scripture Although it covers critical issues such as authorship background and history its primary focus is on the message and theology of the prophetic books and the contribution they make to the Christian canon Particular attention is given to literary issues such as the structure of each prophetic book Full color illustrations diagrams and artwork bring the text to life Additional resources for instructors and students are available through Textbook eSources Educational Film Guide H.W. Wilson Company,1953 Bridges in New Testament Interpretation Neil Elliott,Werner H. Kelber,2018-04-30 The field of New Testament studies often appears splintered into widely different specializations and narrowly defined research projects Nevertheless some of the most important insights have come about when curious men and women have defied disciplinary boundaries and drawn on other fields of knowledge in order to gain a more adequate view of history The essays in Bridges in New Testament Interpretation offer surveys of the current scholarly discussion in areas of New Testament and Christian origins where cross disciplinary fertilization has been decisive and describe the role that interdisciplinary bridges especially as led by Richard A Horsley have played Topics include the socioeconomic history of Roman Palestine the historical Jesus in political and media contexts communication media orality and social context in the study of Q the Gospels in the context of oral culture performance and social memory reading Paul s letters in the context of Roman imperial culture the narrativization of early Christianity in relation to the ancient media environment and the role of power in shaping our understanding of history as evident in people s history the historical agency of subordinate classes and the role of public and hidden transcripts in contexts shaped by power relations Essays also address the role of the interpreter as engaged with the social and political concerns of our time The sum is even greater than the parts presenting a powerful argument for the value of further exploration across interdisciplinary bridges
