Catchy Phrases For 2014:

The 2019 Parliamentary Elections in India Subrata K. Mitra, Rekha Saxena, Pampa Mukherjee, 2022-06-16 This book presents a comprehensive overview of India's electoral democracy and political system. It provides an in-depth analysis of the 2019 parliamentary elections to explore three crucial facts of India's political life: the legitimacy of political competition as the only basis of power elections, as the only legitimate basis of political competition, and political parties as the only legitimate agency to conduct political competition. The book argues that the vitality and resilience of India's electoral democracy remain high owing to large mass participation in elections that are competitive and relatively free and fair. The volume includes key theoretical, empirical, and comparative perspectives on parties and elections from experts and covers all major political parties of India along with the performance of many representative regional parties. It discusses themes such as elections and party competition in India, ideology, interest, religion, and gender as they affect social mobilisation and political transaction, economic and political change, and multiparty democracy, the dynamics of the Muslim vote, fluctuating electoral fortunes, and electoral campaigns and the role of social media. This book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of political science, political sociology, election studies, Indian politics, South Asian politics, and South Asian studies. It will also interest those in politics, public policy, and governance, civil society organisations, media, and journalism, and the general reader.

Rationalising Constructive Trusts Ying Khai Liew, 2017-09-21 Constructive trusts significantly interfere with the rights of an apparent legal owner of property. This makes it necessary for their imposition to be properly explained and justified. Unfortunately, attempts to rationalise constructive trusts as a whole, as opposed to specific doctrines or particular aspects of constructive trusts, have been few and far between. Rationalising Constructive Trusts proposes a new structure for a coherent understanding of constructive trusts. By using a combination of conceptual tools, it provides answers to a number of crucial questions, for example: What are the ingredients of a constructive trust claim? What are the limits of constructive trusts? How can we rationalise the imposition of constructive trusts in particular situations? Why do judges exercise varying degrees of remedial discretion in different doctrines? From a wider perspective, the structured understanding helps us to appreciate the precise ambit and role of express constructive and resulting trusts.

Crash Course in Library Budgeting and Finance Leslie Edmonds Holt, 2016-08-22 Concise, informative, and well-indexed, this book helps readers get the big picture as well as the considerable number of details involved in managing the finances for a library. For all libraries, money is critical to decision-making about technology, staffing, and collections. As a result, informed budgeting is critically important for any library to succeed. This book explains library finance in a practical, engaging way, using examples of real situations in different types of libraries to teach key points. Written by authors with years of experience in budgeting and financial planning within a variety of library settings, and in teaching library management or fundraising at the university level, Crash Course in Library Budgeting and Finance makes it painless to learn how to properly manage money in any library.

environment The book addresses the entire process of financial planning from a general conceptual overview of library budgeting to the details of generating and spending income and describes best practices for implementing financial controls Subjects covered include building construction and capital projects fund raising capital campaigns moving to fee based services extending and developing earned income financial best practices and assessment and evaluation The authors also make recommendations regarding when and how to share relevant financial information throughout the organization and with constituents throughout the book "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 2014", 2014 Archival snapshot of entire looseleaf Code of Massachusetts Regulations held by the Social Law Library of Massachusetts as of January 2020

Asia-Pacific Trusts Law, Volume 1 Ying Khai Liew, Matthew Harding, 2021-08-26 At a time when Asia represents the fastest growing economic region there is no better moment to consider what trusts law can contribute to societal stability and economic prosperity This book does this by offering the first work that systematically explores trusts law across the region Many Asian Pacific jurisdictions have integrated and developed trusts law in their legal systems either through colonial heritage or statutory activism But the diversity of legal traditions and local contexts has resulted in trusts laws having a significantly varied impact across the region In the modern globalised world there is growing need to adopt an outward looking approach in dealing with matters of common interest This book answers this need by bringing together leading legal scholars and practitioners in the region to explore the theory and practice of trusts law contextualised to specific jurisdictions in the Asia Pacific Exploring 17 jurisdictions in Asia it brings both an academic and practitioner perspective to trusts law in the region Colorado Revised Statutes Colorado, 2017 Dramatic Mirror of Motion Pictures and the Stage, 1918 Putnam's Complete Book of Quotations, Proverbs and Household Words, 1929 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular, 1912 Categorization in Discourse and Grammar Małgorzata Fabiszak, Karolina Krawczak, Katarzyna Rokoszewska, 2016 This collection of papers addresses new trends in Cognitive Linguistics Three parts of the book focus on Conceptual Metaphor Theory and Integration Network Analysis Both the theoretical contributions and the empirical case studies stress the importance of contextual factors in the meaning making processes They employ qualitative methods to analyze the use of metaphor in political discourse and in the conceptualization of emotions The data sets include multimodal data sign languages and co speech gestures The fourth part of the book contains two corpus based studies The fifth part concentrates on the grammatical categories of passive voice and aspect One contribution discusses the problem of categorization in phonology A Good Death Sandra Martin, 2016-04-12 Having a good death is our final human right argues Sandra Martin in this updated and expanded version of her bestselling and award winning social history of the right to die movement in Canada and around the world Winner of the BC National Award for Canadian Non Fiction finalist for both the Donner Prize in Public Policy and the Dafoe Prize for History A Good Death has a new chapter on Canada's Medical Assistance in Dying Law The law allows mentally competent adults who are suffering grievously from incurable conditions to ask for a doctor's help in ending their lives Does the law go far enough No says Martin She delivers compelling stories about the patients the law ignores people with life crushing diseases who are condemned to suffer because their natural deaths are not reasonably foreseeable With a clear analytical eye she exposes the law's shortcomings and outlines constitutional challenges including the presumed right of publicly funded faith based institutions to deny suffering patients a legal medical service Martin argues that Canada can set an example for the world if it can strike a balance between compassion for the suffering and protection of the vulnerable between individual choice and social responsibility A Good Death asks the tough question none of us can avoid How do you want to die The answer will change your life and your death An excellent new book The timeliness is hard to overstate The Globe and Mail What truly distinguishes this book is the reportage on individuals and families who have fought to arrange for a better death These first hand experiences are the beating heart of a timely and powerful examination 2017 BC National Award for Canadian Non Fiction Jury Citation
