Life's Not Fair... Sam Sekimi,2019-08-19 Author Sam Sekimi has been twice married and twice divorced and she sees the ends of her two marriages as her biggest failures She believes the commitment to the meaning behind her marriage vows should be lived out until death When this did not happen for her her self esteem and confidence suffered and only with time counseling and the love of God could she recover Now in Life's Not Fair But God Is Awesome Sekimi presents her twenty one year journey through the events of her life and the stories she has created along the way She hopes that through her experiences challenges successes and failures others may gain the encouragement and confidence they might be lacking As Sekimi explores marriage divorce family friendships religion faith and death she includes not only her personal narratives but also some of her original writing along with lessons learned quotes from those who have touched her life In this inspirational collection of writing one woman shares her life story with the goal of inspiring the faith and optimism of others Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons,2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism's need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity's prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

Religion in Uniform Edward Waggoner,2019-10-03 Religion in Uniform argues powerfully that Americans must reform their military's chaplaincy Americans fund this public project to serve all persons in the armed forces but the chaplaincy currently fails to do so Waggoner shows that Americans support for keeping chaplain positions in the military has always rested on a mix of political military and religious rationales that continue to evolve He argues political military and theological reasons to eradicate bias gender discrimination and sexual violence in the chaplain corps and to stop the use of chaplains in strategic roles abroad Acknowledging that Christian groups are providing the strongest support for the chaplaincy's status quo Waggoner contests the specific theological claims that underwrite their policies He launches a new critical and constructive discussion about US military religion for the twenty first century Liturgy in the Twenty-First Century Alcuin Reid, 2016-07-14 Because the Sacred Liturgy is truly the font from which all the Church's power flows we must do everything we can to put the Sacred Liturgy back at the very heart of the relationship between God and man I ask you to continue to work towards achieving the liturgical aims of the Second Vatican Council and to work to continue the liturgical renewal promoted by Pope Benedict XVI especially through the post synodal apostolic exhortation Sacramentum Caritatis and the motu proprio Summorum Pontificum I ask you to be wise like the householder who knows when to bring out of his treasure things both new and old see Mt 13 52 so that the Sacred Liturgy as it is celebrated and lived today may lose nothing of the estimable riches of the Church's liturgical tradition whilst always being open to legitimate development These words of Robert Cardinal Sarah Prefect of the Congregation for Divine Worship underline the liturgy's fundamental role in every aspect of the life and mission of the Church Liturgy in the Twenty First Century makes available the different perspectives on this from leading figures such as Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone Abbot Philip Anderson Father Thomas Kocik Dom Alcuin Reid and Dr Lauren Pristas Considering questions of liturgical catechetics music preaching how young people relate to the liturgy matters of formation and reform etc Liturgy in the Twenty First Century is an essential resource for all clergy and religious and laity involved in liturgical ministry and formation Bringing forth new treasures as well as old its contributors identify and address contemporary challenges and issues facing the task of realising the vision of Cardinal Sarah Cardinal Ratzinger Benedict XVI and the Second Vatican Council Nicodemites M. Anne Overell, 2018-10-16 In Nicodemites Faith and Concealment Between Italy and Tudor England Anne Overell examines a rarely glimpsed aspect of sixteenth century religious strife the thinkers clerics and rulers who concealed their faith This work goes beyond recent scholarly interest in conformity to probe inward dilemmas and the spiritual and cultural meanings of pretence Among the dissimulators who appear here are Cardinal Reginald Pole and his circle in Italy and in England and also John Cheke and William Cecil Although Protestant and Catholic polemicists condemned all Nicodemites most of them survived reformation violence while their habits of silence and secrecy became influential This study concludes that widespread evasion about religious belief contributed to the erratic development of toleration Anne Overell is an accomplished practitioner of history as a sideways glance revealing subtleties and contours that others have missed In doing so she enriches the story of the Reformation and helps us see its humanity and nuance more vividly and completely Diarmaid MacCulloch Professor of the History of the Church University of Oxford

Peace on Earth Edwin Jones, 2016-05-27 This book posits that it is not possible for a civilization to maintain a human and humane culture without the assistance of religion Religion can be misused or abused into having a negative effect but an authentic religion when properly managed is the only effective source of durable common and humane values throughout society Religion's assertion of the existence of God who alone provides the transcendent power is the only logical basis for asserting and maintaining common values for all people going far above and beyond the indiscriminate and multifarious opinions of diverse and imperfect human beings Some people can maintain certain values derived from their own consciences but human history and psychoanalysis shows that the majority of people cannot sustain a whole culture or civilization from a purely utilitarian and materialistic basis Human nature is imperfect and needs the help of a transcendent power to support its spiritual needs in a humane society and to create a culture or civilization that lasts The British National Bibliography
