

First reconciliation

What to do and say?

Parents/guardians present their child to the priest and step back to allow the child to make their first confession.

The child begins with the sign of the cross:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The child continues:

Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. This is my first Confession. I did not show love when...

The child shares their perceived sins. The priest will share his advice, offer penance and invites the child to say the act of sorrow.

O my God, I thank you for loving me.
I am sorry for all my sins,
for not loving others and not loving you.
Help me to live like Jesus and not sin again.
Amen

O'Toole,2025 The history of US Catholicism is the history of confession For I Have Sinned charts the rise of confession as the defining ritual of American Catholic piety and identity and its fall as clergy sex abuse scandals and the cultural shifts of the 1970s decimated interest in a practice that today is alien even to most faithful believers

The Autobiography of a Maverick Christian Davion Maurice Woodman,2021-04-27 When I was a young baby boomer growing up in Los Angeles and Inglewood California I felt the maverick in me My favorite TV shows were the westerns of the 1950s and 1960s I always admired the cowboys and gunslingers for their strong character and courage Like them I also was unconventional and independent and did not think or behave in the same way as my peers or others Occasionally I was rebellious and did not take orders readily As I grew and became a man I always felt confident in myself as a leader and I rarely regarded others especially my peers as being my even change or equivalent However to become a real man I needed leadership where I was weakest So I often sought from adult men righteousness truthfulness boldness faithfulness loyalty and authenticity I needed a man with good strong character who told the truth and spoke to me in a language that I understood not to discourage me or criticize me unfairly but to elicit from me my best traits Honestly I needed another maverick Christian to lead me away from destruction and into life Perhaps you feel the maverick in you Whether life is currently good bad or ugly I invite you to experience my Christian journey of aligning with the ultimate high priest for all mavericks Pray to God right now and ask Jesus to be your Savior He is able to inspire the wildest of us
