

A golden chalice with a decorative base, set against a background of blue and white abstract patterns. The chalice is the central focus, with a wide, shallow bowl and a stem that tapers to a decorative, cross-shaped base. The background consists of swirling, abstract shapes in shades of blue and white, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall style is artistic and somewhat ethereal.

Prayer Book Studies Volume Seven Derek A. Olsen, 2026-01-06 A landmark series of studies devoted to the revision of the Book of Common Prayer Volume Seven presents new prayers and Thanksgivings and a defense of proposed liturgical revisions The creation of the landmark 1979 Book of Common Prayer was the fruit of nearly four decades of discussion within the Episcopal Church Prayer Book Studies is a series of official reports by the Church's Standing Liturgical Commission that were published over the course of that period representing the work of the committees deliberating over and drafting the materials that would eventually become the 1979 revision These reports provide an extraordinary window into the work of leading liturgical scholars during an age characterized by huge transformation in the fields of liturgy Long out of print and unavailable these reports collected in nine volumes are an invaluable resource for liturgical scholars and clergy Volume 7 contains the Prayers and Thanksgivings not seen before and also a response to the skeptical reception by some of the proposed Christian Initiation materials In addition to a new set of liturgies a lengthy supplement explains and defends the new approach

Matthew Frederick Dale Bruner, 2007-06-25 Recognized as a masterly commentary when it first appeared Frederick Dale Bruner's study of Matthew is now available as a greatly revised and expanded two volume work the result of seven years of careful refinement enrichment and updating Through this commentary crafted especially for teachers pastors and Bible students Bruner aims to help God's people love what Matthew's Gospel says Bruner's work is at once broadly historical and deeply theological It is historical in drawing extensively on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions It is theological in that it unpacks the doctrines in each passage chapter and section of the Gospel Consciously attempting to bridge past and present Bruner asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today As a result his commentary is profoundly relevant to contemporary congregations and to those who guide them Bruner's commentary is replete with lively verse by verse discussion of Matthew's text While each chapter expounds a specific topic or doctrine the book's format consists of a vivid original translation of the text followed by faithful exegesis and critical analysis a survey of historical commentary on the text and current applications of the text or theme under study In this revision Bruner continues to draw on the best in modern scholarship including recent work by W D Davies and Dale C Allison Jr by Ulrich Luz and by many others adding new voices to the reading of Matthew At the same time he cites the classic commentaries of Chrysostom Jerome Augustine Luther Calvin Bengel and the rest who like Bruner himself were not simply doctrinal teachers but also careful exegetes of Scripture Such breadth and depth of learning assure that Bruner's Matthew will remain as a reviewer for Interpretation wrote the most dog eared commentary on the shelf Volume 2 of Bruner's commentary is called The Churchbook because Bruner sees Matthew 13:28 as concerned primarily with the life of the church and discipleship Continuing his Volume 1 Christbook exposition Bruner shows here how the focus of Matthew shifts from Jesus teaching about who he is to teaching mainly about what his church is Bruner's Churchbook

commentary divides the second half of Matthew according to its major ecclesiological themes the church's faith chapters 13-17 the church's love 18-20 the church's history 21-23 the church's hope 24-25 and the church's passion 26-28 Eminently readable rich in biblical insight and ecumenical in tone Bruner's two volume commentary on Matthew now stands among the best in the field A Rational Illustration of the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England Charles Wheatly, 1848
