Questioning Minds Guy Davenport, Hugh Kenner, 2018-10-30 The most intellectually exhilarating work published in 2018 A lasting treasure Michael Dirda The Washington Post Hugh Kenner 1923 2003 and Guy Davenport 1927 2005 first met in September 1953 when each gave a paper on Ezra Pound at Columbia University They met again in the fall of 1957 and their correspondence begins with Kenner's letter of March 7 1958 In the next forty four years they exchanged over one thousand letters An extraordinary document of a literary friendship that lasted half a century the letters represent one of the great and with the dawn of the age of text and Twitter one of the last major epistolary exchanges of its kind Students and lovers of modernism will find in the letters matchless engagements with Eliot Joyce Beckett Basil Bunting Charles Tomlinson R Buckminster Fuller Stan Brakhage Jonathan Williams and the American modernists William Carlos Williams Marianne Moore and Louis Zukofsky The correspondence ends with Kenner's letter of August 9 2002 lamenting how they had drifted apart The extensive notes and cross referencing of archival sources in Questioning Minds are a major contribution to the study of literary modernism The letters contained within explore how new works were conceived and developed by both writers They record faithfully and with candor the urgency that each brought to his intellectual and creative pursuits Here is a singular opportunity to follow the development of their unique fictions and essays from Rome Serena Connolly,2022-10-03 For about one thousand years the Distichs of Cato were the first Latin text of every student across Europe and latterly the New World Chaucer Cervantes and Shakespeare assumed their audiences knew them well and they almost certainly did Yet most Classicists today have either never heard of them or mistakenly attribute them to Cato the Elder The Distichs are a collection of approximately 150 two line maxims in hexameters that offer instructions about or reflections on topics such as friendship money reputation justice and self control Wisdom from Rome argues that Classicists and others should read the Distichs they provide important insights into the ancient Roman literate masses conceptions of society and their views of relationships between the individual family community and state Newly dated to the first century CE they are an important addition and often corrective to more familiar contemporary texts that treat the same topics Moreover as the field of Classics increasingly acknowledges the intellectual importance of exploring the reception of
