A Graphic Memoir. The Perception of Authenticity in Alison Bechdel's "Fun Home" Maja-Felicia Kristan, 2019-09-23 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2018 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 0 University of Erfurt Philosophische Fakultät course Literature in Images Graphic Novels language English abstract This work analyzes the perception of authenticity in Fun Home Alison Bechdel's Fun Home from 2007 is a graphic memoir that tries to create a sense of truthfulness to the reality of the author's memories by employing various means. This paper examines the techniques Bechdel uses for the creation of what may look for the reader like authenticity. By using for example Philippe Lejeune's autobiographical pact, the text closely analyzes the presentation of text and image concerning the protagonist Alison and the narrating voice as well as the role of photographs in the text. By investigating the protagonist's self-portrayal through text and images, this paper tries to point out the successfulness of appearing truth of the story as well as distinguish in which instance a disruption of before identified means in form of fictionalization can be found in the text and how this influences the perception of its authenticity. The second part of the paper then focuses on photography as another means to invoke a perception of truthfulness in the text with special attention to photography as means of memory and truth based on theories by Roland Barthes and Marianne Hirsch as well as its possible fictionalization through the confines of the graphic novel genre and its significance in relation to the text's authenticity.

In Graphic Subjects Michael A. Chaney brings together a lively mix of scholars to examine the use of autobiography within graphic novels including such critically acclaimed examples as Art Spiegelman's Maus, David Beauchard's Epileptic, Marjane Satrapi's Persepolis, Alan Moore's Watchmen and Gene Yang's American Born Chinese. These essays accompanied by visual examples illuminate the new horizons that illustrated autobiographical narrative creates. The volume insightfully highlights the ways that graphic novelists and literary cartoonists have incorporated history, experience and life stories into their work. The result is a challenging and innovative collection that reveals the combined power of autobiography and the graphic novel.

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non-academic readers.
