Provençal language and literature Charles Maurice Davies,1878 Digital, Class, Work John Michael Roberts,2022-04-04 This book examines class relations through numerous empirical case studies reports and other sets of data before and during COVID 19 It is divided in four distinctive work processes the global productive digital work process which comprises areas like manufacturing unproductive commercial digital work which comprises sectors like the creative industries retail and services digital gig work practices and the state and public work sectors Roberts maps class relations in these work processes to three types of digital work digital labour or what is commonly known as platform labour digitisation of labour the application of digital technology to everyday work practices and digitised labour when automation and smart machines replace real workers in an organisation Situating the analysis within the broader and global perspective of neoliberalism and financialisation it demonstrates how the use of digital technology in many workplaces and labour processes has benefited unproductive global capital particularly capital in the unproductive financial sector General American Speech Sounds Grace Barnes,1946

Demystifying Modern Slavery Rose Broad,David Gadd,2022-11-11 Who are the perpetrators of modern slavery Why do they exploit others What might be done to stop exploitation recurring These are the questions answered in this book Reporting on the first primary study of modern slavery offenders the book depicts the findings of in depth interviews with people accused of and convicted for committing modern slavery offences The different forms that modern slavery takes are explained chapter by chapter organized crime people smuggling labour exploitation domestic servitude sham marriage the trafficking of adults for sexual exploitation and child sex trafficking Using case studies to illuminate the perspectives of those deemed perpetrators we show that few modern slavery offenders conform to stereotypes of people traffickers Through an interpretive analysis of offenders life stories we reveal the points in the past and present where interventions could have prevented victims from becoming trapped in exploitation We show that while national governments and international bodies often appear resolute in their efforts to tackle modern slavery and people trafficking they have also obscured their own roles in compounding the plights of those at the sharp ends of globalization In racializing the actions of sex traffickers grooming gangs and organized criminals the modern slavery agenda has mystified the roles market dynamics the absence of workers rights and immigration controls play in generating vulnerabilities to exploitation This book will be of interest to a wide range of students policymakers and practitioners concerned with modern slavery human trafficking border control and immigration globalization and inequality as well as the more disciplinefocused criminological audiences concerned with why people commit crimes what should be done about them and the often paradoxical consequences of social control across borders Given the book s strong focus on narrative psychosocial and social network methodologies it will also appeal to audiences across the social sciences concerned with applying these novel approaches to difficult to reach populations Fun, Ancient and Modern Charles Maurice Davies,1878 Life ,1911 The Unabridged Crossword Puzzle Dictionary Albert Franklin Sisson,1963 Consuming Crisis Francesca Sobande,2022-10-26 Consuming Crisis is a crucial account of how consumer culture capitalized on Coronavirus COVID 19 Sobande explores how brands claim to care while they encourage people to keep calm and consume This critical analysis of the power and politics of marketing examines an eclectic mix of campaigns content and experiences Such work outlines the societal significance of fast fashion adverts banana bread s pandemic moment university social media strategies and how digital technology mediates memories and work Based on the belief that brands cannot be activists Sobande creatively considers how brands construct care camaraderie culture and so called normal life during times of crisis Francesca Sobande is a Senior Lecturer in Digital Media Studies at Cardiff University

Organised Crime, Financial Crime, and Criminal Justice Dan Jasinski,Amber Phillips,Ed Johnston,2023-05-15 Organised crime and financial crime are pressing global problems increasingly recognised as policy priorities both by national governments and international bodies and corporations This proudly interdisciplinary collection is built on the premise that these topics are too often artificially separated both in scholarship and the classroom Bringing together scholars from law the social sciences and the humanities this book showcases a diverse range of perspectives on these complex and compelling global issues and the criminal justice challenges that they pose The themes discussed include legal theory and procedure regulation and enforcement prevention and punishment media representation and perception Readers are encouraged to think outside traditional disciplinary bounds and form their own connections and conclusions inspired by the juxtaposition of perspectives rarely seen together in the same volume
