Whitaker's Book List ,1991 The Power of Neo-Slave Fiction and Public History Grant Rodwell,2023-10-13 Professional historians schools colleges and universities are not alone in shaping higher order understanding of history The central thesis of this book is the belief historical fiction in text and film shape attitudes towards an understanding of history as it moves the focus from slavery to the enslaved from the institution to the personal families and feminist accounts In a broader sense this contributes to a public history In part using the quickly growing corpus of neo slave counterfactual narratives this book examines the notion of the emerging slavery public history and the extent to which this is defined by literature film and other forms of artistic expression rather than non fiction popular or scholarly and education in history in the school systems Inter alia this book looks to the validity of historical fiction in print or in film as a way of understanding history A focal point of this book is the hypothesis that neo slave narratives supported by selective triangulated readings and viewings of scholarly works and non fiction have assisted greatly in re shaping the historiography of antebellum slavery and scholarly historians followed in the wake of these developments Essentially this has meant a re shaping of the historiography with a focus from slavery to that of the enslaved Moreover it has opened new vistas for a public history devoid of top down authoritative scholarship An important and provocative read for students and scholars interested in understanding the history of slavery its harrowing effects and how it was culturally defined The Listener, 1937 A weekly publication established by the BBC in 1929 as the medium for reproducing radio and later television programmes in print It is our only record and means of accessing the content of many early broadcasts TACCLE2 - e-learning for primary teachers Fernando Albuquerque Costa, Jan Bierweiler, Koen DePryck, Linda Castañeda, Gabriela Grosseck, Carla Rodriguez, Mar Sánchez, Katleen Vanden Driessche, Laura Malita, Isabel Gutiérrez Porlán, Pedro Reis, Carine Schepers, 2014 TACCLE2 e learning for primary teachers A step by step guide to improving teaching and learning in your classroom is a project funded by the EU under its Lifelong Learning Programme We the authors are real teachers just like you and we ve got the battle scars to prove it Our aim is to help other teachers enhance their current practice by providing support and guidance as they begin bridging the gaps that have until now prevented them from taking advantage of the educational opportunities that information and communication technologies have to offer This handbook contains 38 step by step comprehensive lessons graded according to difficulty and organized according to age group and subject As well as detailed lesson instructions you will also find handy hints and tips to help you avoid any potential pitfalls safety notes so that you can be as confident as possible that learners will use the internet safely and responsibly and a list of loads more ways you can use an applications once you ve mastered it We re such nice people we ve also included links to examples that we ve use links to online tutorials and helpful websites Books Out Loud, 2007 Bibliographic Guide to Dance New York Public Library.
