Barbara Crooker Selected Poems:

Selected Poems Barbara Crooker, 2015 This collection brings together 102 poems from Barbara Crooker's previous ten chapbooks of poetry two of which won national prizes with a handful of uncollected poems at the end Of Crooker's work William Matthews has written Barbara Crooker's poems have been written with a deft touch and with that affection for their textures and paces that we're accustomed to call a little dryly technical skill It's a form of love actually and since she's expended it on her poems we can too Janet McCann writing in the Foreword says The poems in this collection come mostly from chapbooks collections which cluster around a theme such as loss of a parent or friend raising a child with autism travel art Crooker's collections are remarkable for their unity their poems epigraphs even covers have a thematic thrust that collects and directs the work making each a coherent work of art Reading the work from beginning to end provides an experience of Crooker's world that place of work and sadness balanced by art and love It also provides vignettes of growing up in the fifties and sixties and shows what it was like to come of age as a woman in those years the expectations the hopes the barriers that had to be overcome Even in poems of loss the energy persists giving us the sense that Crooker is truly in the current of life feeling its verve what Wallace Stevens called the intensity of love that he identified with the verve of earth

Small Rain Barbara Crooker, 2014-12-29 Barbara Crooker's sixth collection of poetry Small Rain is an exploration of the wheel of the year the seasons that roll in a continuous circle and yet move inexorably forward Here gorgeous lyric poems praise poppies mockingbirds nectarines mulch and compost yet loss stillbirth cancer emphysema with its crow black wings is also always present In poems that narrow in on the particular a cardinal twangs his notes of cheer he has no truck with irony and post modernism poems that focus on aging and the body how many springs are left on my ticket poems that open out into the larger world of politics war global climate change Crooker's work embodies Wendell Berry's words Be joyful though you have considered all the facts reminding us that sometimes we need to stop in wonder look at the natural world which we are close to ruining forever and let our mouths say o and o and o

Poets on Paintings Robert D. Denham, 2010-03-10 Ekphrasis the description of pictorial art in words is the subject of this bibliography More specifically some 2500 poems on paintings are catalogued by type of publication in which they appear and by poet Also included are 2000 entries on the secondary literature of ekphrasis including works on sculpture music photography film and mixed media

Women Rowing North Mary Pipher, 2019-01-15 New York Times Bestseller USA Today Bestseller Los Angeles Times Bestseller Publishers Weekly Bestseller A guide to wisdom authenticity and bliss for women as they age by the author of Reviving Ophelia Women growing older contend with ageism misogyny and loss Yet as Mary Pipher shows most older women are deeply happy and filled with gratitude for the gifts of life Their struggles help them grow into the authentic empathetic and wise people they have always wanted to be In Women Rowing North Pipher offers a timely examination of the cultural and developmental issues women face as they age Drawing on her own experience as daughter sister mother grandmother caregiver clinical psychologist and cultural anthropologist she explores ways women can cultivate resilient responses to the challenges they face If we can keep our wits about us think clearly and manage our emotions skillfully Pipher writes we will experience a joyous time of our lives If we have planned carefully and packed properly if we have good maps and guides the journey can be transcendent

Good Poems for Hard Times ,2006-08-29 The book is full of strong memorable poems that stick with readers like a friend during a long hard night The Christian Science Monitor Here readers will find solace in works that are bracing and courageous organized into such resonant headings as Such As It Is More or Less and Let It Spill From William Shakespeare and Walt Whitman to R S Gwynn and Mary Oliver the voices gathered in this collection will be more than welcome to those who ve been struck by bad news who are burdened by stress or who simply appreciate the power of good poetry

The Turning Aside D. S. Martin,2016-11-09 The Turning Aside is about stepping out of our routines like Moses turning from tending sheep like a certain man selling his everything to buy a field to take time to consider the ways of God in the company of some of the finest poets of our time Turn aside with such established poets as Wendell Berry Les Murray Luci Shaw Elizabeth Jennings Richard Wilbur Dana Gioia and Christian Wiman and respond to their invitation for us to muse along with them Walk with poets from various parts of the planet even though some of them are less known whose words have been carefully crafted to encourage us in our turning aside The Turning Aside is a collection of Christian poetry from dozens of the most spiritually insightful poetic voices of recent years It is a book I have long dreamed of compiling and it has grown beyond my mere imagining in its fulfillment

A Spiritual Life Allan Hugh Cole,2011-01-01 This revealing collection presents a selection of twenty poets prophets and preachers who share their understandings of what makes a good spiritual life They draw on their professional experiences and as important grace us with their personal thoughts The result is essentially a textbook for spirituality courses exposing readers to the spiritual lives of a wonderfully diverse group of people with a wide range of Christian experiences Every reader is sure to find a perspective with which he or she can identify

Poet's Market, 1989 Judson Jerome, 1988-10 Feminist Periodicals, 2006 Sweeping Beauty Pamela Gemin, 2005

Thankless mundane and never done housework continues to be seen as women's work and contemporary women poets are still writing the domestic experience sometimes resenting its futility and lack of social rewards sometimes celebrating its sensory delights and immediate gratification sometimes cherishing the undeniable link it provides to their mothers and grandmothers In Sweeping Beauty a number of these poets illustrate how housekeeping's repetitive motions can free the imagination and release the housekeeper's muse For many housekeeping provides the key to a state of mind approaching meditation a state of mind also conducive to making poems The more than eighty contributors to Sweeping Beauty embrace this state and confirm that women are pioneers and inventors as well as life givers and nurturers My fingers are forks my tongue is a rose I turn silver spoons into rabbit stew make quinces my thorny upholstery how else could the side of beef walk with the sea urchin roe sings the cook in Natasha Saj's ode to kitchen alchemy I love the notion that we can take our most poisonous angers our most despairing or humiliated or stalemated moments and make something good of them something

tensile and enduring says Leslie Ullman Whether we are fully present in our tasks or gone in the motion of performing them whether our stovetops are home to stewpots of discontent or grandmother s favorite jam something is always cooking
