Barometer Rising Hugh MacLennan, 1965 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Canadian Books in Print, 1973 Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill, 2012-05-07 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere A Few Acres of Snow Paul Simpson-Housley, Glen Norcliffe, 1992-09-01 In 1759 Voltaire in Candide referred to Canada as quelques arpents de neige For several centuries the image prevailed and was the one most frequently used by poets writers and illustrators Canada was perceived and portrayed as a cold hard and unforgiving land this was not a land for the fainthearted Canada has yielded its wealth only reluctantly while periodically threatening life itself with its displays of fury Discovering its beauty and hidden resources requires patience and perseverance A Few Acres of Snow is a collection of twenty two essays that explore from the geographer's perspective how poets artists and writers have addressed the physical essence of Canada both landscape and cityscape Sense of place is clearly critical in the works examined in this volume Included among the book's many subjects are Hugh MacLennan Gabrielle Roy Lucius O'Brien the art of the Inuit Lawren Harris Malcolm Lowry C W Jefferys L M Montgomery Elizabeth Bishop Marmaduke Matthews Antonine Maillet and the poetry of Japanese Canadians Canadian Books in Print Martha Pluscauskas, 1976 Sex and Violence in the Canadian Novel John Moss, 1977 Canadian Historical Documents Series, 1966 Proceedings from the Eighth Conference of English, American and Canadian Studies Jan Chovanec, 2005 The Urban Experience John Howard Stevens, John Stevens, 1975 Patterns of Isolation in English Canadian Fiction John Moss, 1974 Journal of Canadian Fiction, 1973 Hugh MacLennan Frank M. Tierney, 1994 Since the publication of Two Solitudes in 1945 Hugh MacLennan has been generally accepted as one of Canada's premier novelists However recent studies suggest the need for a reappraisal of MacLennan's status This need is confirmed by a close examination of his writing in recent years which has raised questions about the depth of the quality of his works his scope and inclusiveness his modernism as well as other issues In this volume leading scholars offer fresh perceptions of MacLennan's personality character and artistry Among other issues they examine the quality of his writing the influences on his work and its importance for Canadian literature Moreover conclusions are offered about his international national regional and civic intent his love hate relationship with the nationalist literary agenda his attitude toward women his own feminine side the authenticity of the father son conflict central to his fiction his attitude toward his own and other writers works the role of critics the future of literature An annotated bibliographic update is also included Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ika, 2010 With aggravating global realignments the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium while globalization is gaining further steam To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical social cultural economic demographic ecological and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans whatever sea of turmoil uncertainty and indeterminateness The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long In 16 resourceful essays internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation states in the world Canada in the Third Millennium The topics they discuss include among others Canada's difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story the role of nations within the nation the efforts to transcend the nation pending geopolitical and geo ecological crises global issues and new wars Collectively the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader
