

- Your teacher will give you plenty of time to prepare for the task. You can use any resources you like, but do keep a record of them (including websites). You must include a list of these at the end of your task.
- You can work in a small group to research and prepare your material but your final work must be all your own.
- Do watch different versions of the play. You can refer to the different versions when you write your response and you will be given credit for this.
- You can refer to brief notes when you are writing your response, but these must be brief. You must hand in your notes at the end of each session and on completion of the task. You can also use a copy of the play without any annotations.
- You can handwrite your response or use a word processor. You are allowed a dictionary and thesaurus or grammar and spell-check programs. You are NOT allowed to use the internet, email, disks or memory sticks when writing your response.
- You can do the Controlled Assessment Task in January or June. When you have finished, your teachers will mark your work and then send a sample from your school to AQA to be checked.

Examiner's tip

The Controlled Assessment Task is worth 25 per cent of your final English Literature mark – so it's worth doing it well.

How to get a good grade

1. Select what you write about carefully. It is better to write a lot about a little. Concentrate on one scene in Shakespeare and one chapter in a novel or a single poem, or on two characters, one from a Shakespeare play and one from a novel.
2. Use short, relevant quotations. Every time you include a quotation, consider the language the writer has used and the probable effect on the audience.
3. Never retell the story. You and your teachers already know it. If you find yourself doing this, stop and refocus on the question.
4. Check your spellings, in particular writers' and characters' names.
5. Always remember that Macbeth, Lady Macbeth and the other characters in the play are not real. Do not write about them as if they are. They have been created by Shakespeare; he's the important person to consider.

SAMPLE CONTROLLED ASSESSMENT TASK

Explore the ways writers present characters who are influenced by others.

Here are extracts from responses written by two students. Both are writing about the dialogue between Macbeth and Lady Macbeth in Act 1 Scene 7.

Extract 1 Grade C response

In this scene Lady Macbeth makes sure that her husband will do exactly what she wants him to do. Macbeth wants to stop the murder and says 'We will proceed no further'. He tells his wife that King Duncan has honoured him and he wants to enjoy his new importance. Lady Macbeth is being ruthless of it. She's only after one thing and that's to be Queen. She calls him a coward and compares him to a cat that wants fish but doesn't want to get his paws wet. She means that Macbeth wants to be king but doesn't want to do anything dangerous to become king. Macbeth replies that he is a real man and will dare to do anything. But he is still worried about what will happen if they fail. Lady Macbeth dismisses this idea as being impossible. 'You'll not fail'. By the end of the scene Macbeth has been persuaded to carry on with the plan. The audience is now waiting for the murder to be committed.

Relevant textual detail

Explains effect

Could be developed more

System explanation

Good point with relevant quotation

Very positive ending - needs much more development

Examiner's comments

- The student clearly understands some of Shakespeare's ideas and uses of language in the speech.
- Not all points are fully explained and backed up: for example, Lady Macbeth's accusation of cowardice.
- There is a general understanding of how Lady Macbeth influences her husband, although the effects on Macbeth and the audience are not considered in much detail.
- This is a Grade C response. To improve, this student needs to develop ideas in more detail and to link these details to a more thoughtful consideration of the scene.
