Dear Ms. Block,

This letter is to inform you about an upcoming in-service training that you are required to attend. The purpose of this training is to enhance your communication and teamwork skills in the workplace. It is important that you participate in this training to strengthen your abilities in fostering a collaborative and effective work environment.

The training will take place on November 15, 2050, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. We have arranged for a qualified trainer, Ms. Eileen Thompson, to conduct the training session. The venue for the training is the Balle Conference Center.

Please make sure to come dressed in business casual attire and bring any materials mentioned in the training agenda. Lunch and refreshments will be provided during the training session.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the training, please feel free to contact me at the provided email address. We look forward to your active participation in this training, which will surely benefit you in your professional development. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,
