

Antigone Questions

1. Read lines 25 – 47 carefully. How does Antigone summarize Creon's proclamation? How will this ruling affect her family?
  - a. Antigone says that Creon allowed only one of their brothers, Eteocles, to be buried while Polynices is left to rot in the street.
  - b. Antigone thinks that whether or not they go against Creon will prove if they are "worthy" of their splendid ancestors.
2. In lines 62 – 72, why does Ismene recount their family's history to her sister? What purpose might she have for this reminder?
  - a. Ismene is trying to convince Antigone not to bury Polynices, or else she'll end up just like their brothers, and father, and mother. Their actions led to their back-to-back deaths, and she doesn't want Antigone to die tragically as well.
  - b. This also provides context for the audience.
3. The conflict between Antigone and Ismene becomes clearly stated in lines 92 – 98. Explain this conflict and how it advances the plot.
  - a. Antigone is going to bury Polynices, regardless of what the state and their uncle Creon says. Ismene, however, is more lawful and cannot go against him, despite how she feels about Polynices's lack of funeral.
4. What effect is created by the juxtaposition of the terms hate and love in lines 114 and 121? What does the use of these terms reveal about each sister?
  - a. Antigone is driven by hate. She hates Creon, so she'll rebel against him by burying her brother.
  - b. Ismene loves Antigone so she doesn't want her to go against Creon. She may feel the same but she is not willing to act like it.
5. How does the play build tension and conflict between the two sisters?
  - a. It introduces the consequences for going against Creon and shows the sisters' opposing views and reactions on this proclamation.
  - b. Antigone is characterized as someone stubborn and driven by emotion, so we know that she will stick to her opinions regardless of the stakes.
  - c. The use of stichomythia.
6. In line 185, what does Creon mean by the metaphorical phrase "after much tossing of our ship of state"?
  - a. Creon is referencing the recent chaos that has happened recently from a string of dead kings to war.
7. What is Creon's definition of an effective ruler? Cite evidence from the text to support your analysis.
