The Other Black Church Joseph L. Tucker Edmonds,2020-12-02 The Other Black Church Alternative Christian Movements and the Struggle for Black Freedom examines the movements led by Father Divine Charles Mason and Albert Cleage later known as Jaramogi Abebe Agyeman as alternative Christian movements in the middle of the twentieth century that radically re envisioned the limits and possibilities of Black citizenship These movements not only rethink the value and import of Christian texts and reimagined the role of the Black Christian prophetic tradition but they also outlined a new model of protest that challenged the language and logic of Black essentialism economic development and the role of the state By placing these movements in conversation with the long history of Black theology and Black religious studies this book suggests that alternative Christian movements are essential for thinking about African American critiques of and responses to the failures of U S based democracy These prophets of Black theological thought and their attention to the limits of the state and traditional Black religious formations are most fully appreciated when studied in light of their conversations and interactions with other key Black prophetic and theological figures of the mid twentieth century Ultimately The Other Black Church will use those conversations and archives from these movements to highlight their protest of the racial state to explore the limits of the Black church and to argue for their continued significance for thinking about the variety and vibrancy of Black protest specifically Black religious protest during the twentieth century
