Ethnic Cleansing During the Cold War Tomasz Kamusella,2018-07-17 In mid 1989 the Bulgarian communist regime seeking to prop up its legitimacy played the ethnonational card by expelling 360 000 Turks and Muslims across the Iron Curtain to neighboring Turkey It was the single largest ethnic cleansing during the Cold War in Europe after the wrapping up of the postwar expulsions population transfers of ethnic Germans from Central Europe in the latter half of the 1940s Furthermore this expulsion of Turks and Muslims from Bulgaria was the sole unilateral act of ethnic cleansing that breached the Iron Curtain The 1989 ethnic cleansing was followed by an unprecedented return of almost half of the expellees after the collapse of the Bulgarian communist regime The return which partially reversed the effects of this ethnic cleansing was the first ever of its kind in history Despite the unprecedented character of this 1989 expulsion and the subsequent return not a single research article let alone a monograph has been devoted to these momentous developments yet However the tragic events shape today s Bulgaria while the persisting attempts to suppress the remembrance of the 1989 expulsion continue sharply dividing the country s inhabitants Without remembering about this ethnic cleansing it is impossible to explain the fall of the communist system in Bulgaria and the origins of ethnic cleansing during the Yugoslav wars Faltering Yugoslavia s future ethnic cleansers took a good note that neither Moscow nor Washington intervened in neighboring Bulgaria to stop the 1989 expulsion which in light of international law was then still the legal instrument of population transfer The as yet unhealed wound of the 1989 ethnic cleansing negatively affects the Bulgaria s relations with Turkey and the European Union It seems that the only way out of this debilitating conundrum is establishing a truth and reconciliation commission that at long last would ensure transitional justice for all Bulgarians irrespective of language religion or ethnicity

From Coldwar Communism to the Global Emancipatory Movement Peter Waterman,2014-12-12 Boaventura de Sousa Santos says This is an admirable memoir of an intellectual activist who has lived most intensely the progressive struggles of the last sixty years of world history because despite being born in Europe Peter in the best tradition of communist internationalism participated in struggles and movements not only in Central and Eastern Europe but also in Africa and most recently in Latin America But this is much more than a memoir It is so well documented that in this personal experience there are reflected some of the most decisive events of contemporary history It is a living history book But even more than this this book is so clearly and vividly written that at times it reads like the script for an imaginary documentary of our times This book should be read by all concerned with our recent history in order to get a much more complex inside view of what happened while it was happening In particular it should be read by the youth in order to get a close up of the difficulties and possibilities in building another possible world at a time where there existed a vibrant international communist movement It is up to such youth to evaluate whether difficulties are now or more daunting the possibilities less or more luminous
