mainstreaming - integrating students with disabilities or special needs into the overall educational program

Individuals with Disabilities Improvement Act (IDEIA) - federal law that governs the education of children with disabilities

Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) - U.S. legislation granting educational rights to people with cognitive, emotional, or physical disabilities from birth until age 21; initially passed in 1975, it has been amended and reauthorized in 1997 and again in 2004. IDEA operates under six basic principles: zero reject, nondiscriminatory identification and evaluation, free and appropriate public education, least restrictive environment, due process, and parent and student participation in shared decision making with regard to educational planning.

Child Find - A function of each state, mandated by federal law, to locate and refer individuals who might require special education

Free Appropriate Public Education (FAPE) - Special education and related services that (a) have been provided at public expense, under public supervision and direction and without charge; (b) meet the standards of the state educational agency; (c) include an appropriate preschool, elementary, or secondary school education in the state involved; and (d) are provided in conformity with the individualized education program

Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) - a legal requirement that children with special needs be assigned to the most general educational context in which they can be expected to learn

Continuum of Services - matching the needs of the student with an appropriate placement on an individual basis

Individualized Education Plan (IEP) - a legal document defining the educational program and related services for a specific student who has a disability

Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) - a written document similar to an IEP that focuses on the family and the child's natural environment

Vocational Rehabilitation Act - prohibits discrimination on the basis of physical or mental disabilities
