Name Sarah Jones		Date 25.01.23
Trigger	Automatic Thought	New Thought
I received a bad grade on my math test	I'm a failure, and despite my hours of studying, it amounted to nothing because I don't have the brains for it.	I can learn from this experience, and study my weaknesses for next time. I need to adapt my strategy rather than blaming an inability.
I didn't get first in class this year	I'm becoming more stupid, and I obviously need to spend more hours into my studies	I'm not stupid, and I have consistently achieved high grades. I just need to work on my understanding in some subjects, and work smarter rather than harder.
My teacher didn't like my essay idea	I suck at English, and I knew it was a bad idea. I don't know why I gain confidence when I clearly don't have the skill.	I don't suck at English as I consistently achieve high grades. I won't always have good ideas, and I can improve.
