

Rain drops drip drop on my shoes

And more drops fall, in ones and twos

I think of all my friends inside

Not me, I think, I shall not hide

Stormy weather makes me run

To puddles outside, so much fun

On rainy days, I'll always be

Running around for all to see

Mud and splashes cover me!

Cooper, Andrea Denny-Brown, 2016-12-05 The Arma Christi the cluster of objects associated with Christ's Passion was one of the most familiar iconographic devices of European medieval and early modern culture From the weapons used to torment and sacrifice the body of Christ sprang a reliquary tradition that produced active and contemplative devotional practices complex literary narratives intense lyric poems striking visual images and innovative architectural ornament This collection displays the fascinating range of intellectual possibilities generated by representations of these medieval objects and through the interdisciplinary collaboration of its contributors produces a fresh view of the multiple intersections of the spiritual and the material in the Middle Ages and Renaissance It also includes a new and authoritative critical edition of the Middle English Arma Christi poem known as O Vernicle that takes account of all twenty surviving manuscripts The book opens with a substantial introduction that surveys previous scholarship and situates the Arma in their historical and aesthetic contexts The ten essays that follow explore representative examples of the instruments of the Passion across a broad swath of history from some of their earliest formulations in late antiquity to their reformulations in early modern Europe Together they offer the first large scale attempt to understand the arma Christi as a unique cultural phenomenon of its own one that resonated across centuries in multiple languages genres and media The collection directs particular attention to this array of implements as an example of the potency afforded material objects in medieval and early modern culture from the glittering nails of the Old English poem Elene to the coins of the Middle English poem Sir Penny from garments and dice on Irish tomb sculptures to lanterns and ladders in Hieronymus Bosch's panel painting of St Christopher and from the altar of the Sistine Chapel to the printed prayer books of the Reformation The Sacred Tree Murasaki Shikibu, 1926 Arthur's Illustrated Home Magazine ,1881 Programs and Practices Pamela B. M. Taylor, 2007 In this ground breaking book Jane H M Taylor explores some late medieval lyric anthologies Taking a cue from the French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu she sets poetic creation in the context of an understanding of the structures of court society and sketches the range of social intellectual and aesthetic positions available to the poet and the patron Her primary focus is on a series of manuscripts which she argues reveal much about the socioliterary dynamics of particular poems and about the way in which they are vessels for the participation by individuals in a common culture of literary exchange Charles d Orleans s personal manuscript BNF francais 25458 in which she argues the poets leave implicit or explicit traces of their social interactions his duchess Marie s album Carpentras 375 which is interestingly different from the Duke s BNF fr 9223 and n a f 15771 coterie manuscripts which allow us to see how social milieu determines shared literary forms and conventions Marguerite d Autriche s Album poetique Brussels BR 10572 an anthology which is a cultural commodity allowing a princely court to recognise stylistic expertise and control of form She finishes by examining the first great French poetic anthology Antoine Verard s Jardin de Plaisance 1501 which seeks to recreate knowingly and imaginatively via rubrics illustrations and choice of texts the elite sociability for which the other anthologies are evidence
