Doctor Who Monologues:

Monologues Jane May, 1907 Headliner Monologues Arthur LeRoy Kaser, 1929 Women's Scenes and Monologues Joyce Devlin, 1989 American Theatre Book of Monologues for Men Stephanie Coen, 2003 Audition monologues selected from plays first published in American theatre magazine since 1985 Private Anarchy Paul Buchholz, 2018-03-15

European social theorists of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries tended to define modernity as a condition of heightened alienation in which traditional community is replaced by a regime of self interested individualism and collective isolation In Private Anarchy Paul Buchholz develops an alternative intellectual history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries showing how a strain of German language literature worked against this common conception of modernity Buchholz suggests that in their experimental prose Gustav Landauer Franz Kafka Thomas Bernhard and Wolfgang Hilbig each considered how the void of mass society could be the precondition for a new anarchic form of community that would rest not on any assumptions of shared origins or organic unity but on an experience of extreme emptiness that blurs the boundaries of the self and enables intimacy between total strangers This community Buchholz argues is created through the verbal form most closely associated with alienation and isolation the monologue By showing how these authors engaged with the idea of community and by relating these contributions to an extended intellectual genealogy of nihilism Private Anarchy illustrates the distinct philosophical and sociopolitical stakes of German experimental writing in the twentieth century Monologues of Today Stanley Schell, 1916 Not God Marc J. Straus, 2006-05-15

The tread of the nurses leaving the room next door tells the woman her neighbor has died The language of the hospital is one she has unwillingly painstakingly learned the rhythm of machines the counting of pills the measuring of words the shadowy news of an MRI And in these harrowing eloquent poems she opens this world this language of illness to us revealing how deeply these words and rhythms are also the measure of life The views of her doctor are also evocatively expressed his anger struggles and hopes as he speaks of the delicate bond he forms with his ill patients Composed by a distinguished medical oncologist whose literary work has been performed in venues throughout the country the poems of Not God document one woman s encounter with cancer a journey through illness whose end while inevitable is also unknown Alternating with the words of her doctor these poems form a remarkable dialogue of the flesh becoming word and of the body inventorying and finally transcending its limitations Losing the Plot Pardis Dabashi, 2023-11-06

An examination of the relationship between literature and classical Hollywood cinema reveals a profound longing for plot in modernist fiction The modernist novel sought to escape what Virginia Woolf called the tyranny of plot Yet even as twentieth century writers pushed against the constraints of plot driven Victorian novels plot kept its hold on them through the influence of another medium the cinema Focusing on the novels of Nella Larsen Djuna Barnes and William Faulkner writers known for their affinities and connections to classical Hollywood Pardis Dabashi links the moviegoing practices of these writers to the tensions between the formal properties of their novels and the characters in them Even when they did not feature outright happy endings classical Hollywood films often provided satisfying formal resolutions and promoted normative social and political values Watching these films modernist authors were reminded of what they were leaving behind both formally and in the name of aesthetic experimentalism by losing the plot

The Best Women's Stage Monologues of 2002 D. L. Lepidus,2003

The Idea of Spatial Form Joseph Frank,1991 The Idea of Spatial Form contains the classic essay that introduced the concept of spatial form into literary discussion in 1945 and has since been accepted as one of the foundations for a theory of modern literature It is here reprinted along with two later reconsiderations one of which answers its major critics while the second places the theory in relation to Russian Formalism and French Structuralism Originally conceived to clarify the formal experiments of avant garde literature the idea of spatial form when placed in this wider context also contributes importantly to the foundations of a general poetics of the literary text Also included are related discussions of Andr Malraux Heinrich W lfflin Herbert Read and E H Gombrich New material has been added to the essays in the form of footnotes and postscripts to two of them These either illustrate the continuing relevance of the questions raised or offer Frank s more recent opinions on the topic
