

What is a School Report Card?

A report card provides a snapshot of the school's current condition and performance. It is a tool for advocating and communicating the school situation, context, and performance to internal and external stakeholders to involve them in making the school a better learning place for the learners.

What is the purpose of School Report Card?

Its purpose is to provide necessary information pertaining to the accomplishments, projects, and programs of the school and the involvement both of its internal and external stakeholders. This is also a reflection of how far the school has been implementing DepEd programs which will cater to the needs of the learners as its clientele.
