E Reporting Rccg Org:

African Pentecostalism Ogbu Kalu, 2008-03-31 Across Africa Christianity is thriving in all shapes and sizes But one particular strain of Christianity prospers more than most Pentecostals believe that everyone can personally receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit such as prophecy or the ability to speak in tongues In Africa this kind of faith in which the supernatural is a daily presence is sweeping the continent Today about 107 million Africans are Pentecostals and the numbers continue to rise In this book Ogbu Kalu provides the first ever overview of Pentecostalism in Africa He shows the amazing diversity of the faith which flourishes in many different forms in diverse local contexts While most people believe that Pentecostalism was brought to Africa and imposed on its people by missionaries Kalu argues emphatically that this is not the case Throughout the book he demonstrates that African Pentecostalism is distinctly African in character not imported from the West With an even handed approach Kalu presents the religion s many functions in African life Rather than shying away from controversial issues like the role of money and prosperity in the movement Kalu describes malpractice when he sees it The only book to offer a comprehensive look at African Pentecostalism this study touches upon the movement s identity the role of missionaries media and popular culture women ethics Islam and immigration The resulting work will prove invaluable to anyone interested in Christianity outside the West Wonders Above, Signs Below Eugene

Baron, Amos Yong, 2026-02-03 In the face of climate change biodiversity loss increasing pollution and the destruction of natural habitats how can Christians responsibly care for the environment and sustain life Building on emerging ecotheological and social action scholarship this book brings together twenty scholars to develop a Pentecostal missiology addressing the environmental crisis Rich and comprehensive the authors engage in critical biblical analysis of texts that provide an imperative for creation care theological Pentecostal scholarship on mission and environmentalism case studies from around the globe that illuminate current and emerging Pentecostal environmental mission praxis and ecumenical dialogue between Pentecostal churches and the wider church s past This is a must read for all scholars church leaders and Christians engaged in missional work as it intersects with environmental care How God Became African Gerrie ter Haar, 2009-08-20 While African Christianity has wholeheartedly appropriated the symbols scriptures and traditions of historic Christianity elsewhere it has also built on the rich history of the continent s indigenous spiritual beliefs The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

A New Paradigm of Pentecostal Power Asonzeh F. K. Ukah, 2008 Ukah describes with great historical and sociological incisiveness one of the prime movers of this transformation the Redeemed Christian Church of God RCCG which has more than 10 000 congregations in more than 80 countries around the world

Christians in the Cities of Johannesburg and Pretoria Stéphan de Beer, 2025-06-26 Looks at Christianity in the megacity of Johannesburg Pretoria exploring how it has shaped the city and its society

African Christianity Ogbu Kalu, 2007 It is ideologically driven to build a group of church historians who will tell the story of African Christianity not Christianity in Africa as an African story by intentionally privileging the patterns of African agency without neglecting the noble roles played by missionaries The effort has been to identify the major themes or story lines in African encounters and in the appropriation of the gospel from publisher description

Africans and the Politics of Popular Culture Toyin Falola, Augustine Agwuele, 2009 Explores the instrumentalization of various aspects of popular culture in Africa This anthology provides insightful data on and discussions of a wide array of popular cultural manifestations and theoretical perspectives covering such issues as kinship religion conflict resolution music cinema drama and literary texts The issues cohere around the understanding that culture is situational and political Going beyond merely challenging popular stereotypes and representations of Africans and African related practices in various outlets the book reveals how popular cultural practices are instruments that have been manipulated for personal and collective survival The book is distinctive in its codification and explication of aspects of popular practices that are based on data from countries in Africa Europe and the Americas that showcase cultural negotiations either with reference to how notions values norms and images of Africans have been packaged and exploited over the years or how popular cultures are used as tools of resistance and agitation by the various focal groups that are discussed The topics are presented and illustrated in ways easily accessible to readers of all backgrounds Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin Augustine Agwuele is an Assistant Professor of Linguistics in the Department of Anthropology Texas State University San Marcos Contributors Arinpe Adejumo Augustine Agwuele Antoinette Tidjani Alou Maurice N Amutabi Tokunbo A Ayoola Nicholas M Creary Toyin Falola Celeste A Fisher Denise Amy Rose Forbes
