12 The Right to Education in India Florian Matthey-Prakash, 2019-08-22 What does it mean for education to be a fundamental right and how may children benefit from it Surprisingly even when the right to education was added to the Indian Constitution as Article 21A this question barely received any attention The book identifies justiciability or more broadly enforceability as the most important feature of Article 21A meaning that children and their parents must be provided with means to effectively claim their right from the State otherwise it would remain a right only on paper The book highlights

how lack of access to the Indian judiciary means that the constitutional promise of justiciability remains unfulfilled It deals with the possible alternative means the State may provide for the poor to claim the benefits under Article 21A and identifies the grievance redress mechanism created by the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act 2009 as a potential system of enforcement Even though this system is found to be deficient the book concludes with an optimistic outlook hoping that rights advocates may in the future focus on improving such mechanisms for legal empowerment

Transitions to Post-School Life Margarita Pavlova, John Chi-Kin Lee, Rupert Maclean, 2017-11-16 This book addresses growing reservations about the relevance of educational systems to the economic and social needs of individuals by examining different aspects of transitions from school to work or further studies within formal and informal settings in Asia Highlighting important issues such as selectiveness and inclusiveness integration of transversal competencies vocationalisation of secondary schooling approaches to career guidance and emerging models of student support it is of particular interest to educators policymakers and other stakeholders who are concerned about the effectiveness of system wide and institutional based approaches The first part of the book explores different models mechanisms and approaches to policy and practice in the context of Asia while the second part examines Hong Kong students transitions to post school life and provides an account of issues and challenges the government and individual schools experience in terms of structural support for both mainstream and special needs students
